I am a resident in the Aerotropolis core that has been rezoned due to the new airport. We have been hit with disgraceful decisions time and time again to try to devalue our land and now this. Why do i need to pay tax on land that i am residing on? I didn't ask for the airport to be built and for all these changes to be made it is just another money grab for the government from hard working Australians who deserve to be treated better than thia. I opose to the tax and think that the government really needs to take a long hard look at themselves and the policies, rezoning and taxes they push on people who have had no say in what has been happening around them. It is unfair and unjust ans absolutely shameful.
