INQUIRY INTO FLOODPLAIN HARVESTING

Name: Mr Benjamin Lucas

Date Received: 12 July 2021

The corruption that has been exposed by the National Party regarding the management of flood plain harvesting in the Murry Darling Basin and the resulting environmental, economic and social impacts is deeply alarming. It appears as though the state government has gone to great lengths to hide this corruption in lies and mistruths. When will the government hold these regulators to account and start standing up to the strangle hold they have over the communities impacted by this malicious behaviour.
