

INQUIRY INTO FLOODPLAIN HARVESTING

Name: Name suppressed

Date Received: 13 July 2021

Partially
Confidential

The dishonest and immoral use of floodplain harvesting, as well as unfair laws surrounding the use, holding, and sale of water in Australia, presents a radical injustice to common Australian people, particularly those in rural towns which rely on water management for their prosperity and survival. The current standings are oligarchical and unjust, with the benefit of an influential few taking precedence over the livelihood and health of the populations of regional towns. Its un-Australian and must be changed.
