SOUTH WALES

Hello. I've been breeding and showing pedigree dogs for over 25 years. Both in Australia and co bred and shown in the USA. ANKC and AKC registered. Our little dogs have been represented on the world stage and we took home a world winner title. We are extremely dedicated to dog sports. Dog shows and now scent detection with our dogs. My Children have grown up with a deep respect for animals. Our dogs are part of our family. Live inside with us, go out with us, and on weekends, instead of football or cricket games, we as a family go dog showing. Our dogs love it and can't wait to go showing. I would appreciate some clarification on the proposal in the draft bill in relation to "Exhibiting" of animals. Does this mean I will need a licence to take my dogs and show them in an ANKC affiliate show anywhere across NSW?

Kind regards

I have attached a photo of one our our babies right now. This little Guy will one day grow up to be a genetically healthy, sound temperament, loving family pet and superior show dog, just like the many many generations before him.
