Hi. We are moving to Marsden Park last year and we bought a land in November 2019, main reason is High school. State government promised high school in our suburb. We/ me and my wife want high school asap so my son can get best free government education. We are now forced to send him In private high school. In last 12 months we havent seen any progress for the high school, only they allocate some amount in last state budget.. please let us know when exactly high school is being ready for young Australians.

Thanks
