WALES

I have been a dog owner all my life. I am now 60 years old & feel that it's time to address this extremely cruel breeding. No dog, should be put through these conditions.

Laws need to be made to protect these beautiful creatures. It's our duty to speak up for them & have this process made illegal.

There are so many puppies abandoned, every day!

We do not need more suffering for the sake of lining the pockets of these greedy & unscrupulous people.

Laws to end Puppy Farming, should restrict the number of animals, breeders can have, combat secretive online sales, & ban the sale of animals in pet shops.

Recent investigations into NSW Puppy farms, has revealed extreme cruelty & suffering of dogs. I reference the heartbreaking story of Strawberry, The 1yr old Boxer, who was breed & left for 4 days, unable to deliver all of her Puppies, they died inside her, hence killing her, in a slow, extremely painful death. Just horrific.

Other Australian States have already banned Pet Shop sales & are introducing laws to combat Puppy Farming.

NSW also,needs to stand up & follow through with these laws of protection for these poor animals. STOP hiding & pretending this is ok ! it's Not ok. Nothing about it is Ok!
