INQUIRY INTO ANIMAL WELFARE POLICY IN NEW SOUTH WALES

The proposed Animal Welfare Bill 2022 falls short of community expectations in a number of areas.

Animals in NSW need laws that will recognise animal sentience and the intrinsic value of animals; stop carving out exemptions for farm animals which allow continuation of cruel practices such as mulesing of lambs, hot iron branding of cattle, carrying out painful procedures without mandatory pain relief, intensive confinement (such as battery cages and sow stalls); establish well-funded and independent compliance and enforcement regimes, free from conflicts of interest through an independent NSW Animal Welfare Authority.

This legislation will impact the welfare of millions of animals across the whole state and represents a rare opportunity to create change, helping to bring an end to unnecessary suffering and improve their lives.

I am giving my support to the minimum care requirements for animals, including opportunities to express normal behaviours; the expansion of the definition of animals to include cephalopods and decapods (e.g. octopus, squid, lobsters and crabs); the inclusion of psychological suffering in the definition of harm to animals.

Thank you
