INQUIRY INTO PRIVATISATION OF BUS SERVICES

To the enquiry

We moved here last year and I was happy to get a bus to the city to the office.

Then Covid hit and we all went back home again. During that time some genius decided two things :

That we should all rush back to the office to prop up a failing commercial rent sector

That the bus routes to the city should be gutted to a shadow of their former glory.

How we reconcile those two things is a mystery. Petrol prices are going up so I'd rather not drive but buses are so bad it takes me over an hour to get in and it's limited in stops.

But I guess it's just another reason to never vote liberal at stage elections ever again.
