

INQUIRY INTO PRIVATISATION OF BUS SERVICES

I resent people making decisions about public transport - who hardly ever use it themselves.

When it comes to ideological fundamentalism the RIGHT has it all over the LEFT.

There is an insane belief - held by Coalition politicians - that every service is improved by privatisation. It is my view that SOME services benefit from this; one service that doesn't is transport for the public.

Privatisation in public transport results in fewer services, less stops and - guaranteed - HIGHER FARES.

Stop fiddling with the public transport you never have the humility to use.
