I'm a mum of a 2 years old and we rely on public transport to get around. Since the bus routes were updated, we struggled to plan our trip outside home, having to factoring longer transit. It's so hard that sometimes we prefer to stay home than going to the library and the park. Both activities are needed for a healthy child development. Please retain public ownership of our bid and re-instate all modified and cancelled bus routes in region 9. Life is back to normal and so should our buses
