INQUIRY INTO PRIVATISATION OF BUS SERVICES

the Liberal party says they'll very very likely privatise public transport, hence buses; I think I read a common practice upon privatisation is, they'll try to make lots of profits by eg increasing bus ticket prices, or lowering the number of buses so they pay lesser for lesser bus drivers working; less staff; and t hey may want to make billions of profits like Trump; and like the privatisation of energy companies, prices of electricity and gas went up; Australia has some of the highest energy bills in the world I think I read somewhere; and, the Liberal party denied lowering carbon emissions likely because they want to suck up to energy companies who'd reward them (maybe with money and stuffs). Energy companies wouldn't make much money if eg solar power and wind power and renewable energy sources were implemented, since it would be kinda free or somethings. No need to burn fossil fuels. I reckon it's very likely privatisation would make private companies aim to be richer than trump with billions of profits (kinda like dodgy Mr Burns from the Simpsons).
