INQUIRY INTO CURRENT AND FUTURE PUBLIC TRANSPORT NEEDS IN WESTERN SYDNEY

There needs to be more connections between Western Sydney and other parts of Sydney (not just the city).

It is so difficult to get from Western Sydney to Southern Sydney, Northern Beaches...anywhere really that isn't the city circle.

There needs to be more trains servicing the Richmond line. I think there has been no change to the number of services in 30 yrs. Still 1 every half hour in off peak. And barely much more during peak. Why? The population growth is all put this way.

There needs to be more parking near train stations. It's usually full by 730am.
