NSW Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1983 should by right be considered paramount in priority to determine all NSW Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 determinations being also considered integrated development in all NSW nature positive land and environment action in law NSW.

The significance of action should be observed on site, recorded in multimedia to be seen and heard and considered notable for future reference.

Cooperation and partnerships between stakeholders with all due respect to Registered NSW Aboriginal Owners and associated cultural connection to country will allow for peace through equity in law NSW.
