Hi I'm

Drinking alcohol in my teens not only made me sick, it made me a vulnerable target, so I began smoking cannabis as a teenager.

I smoked Cannabis socially for many years whilst still holding a full time job, being an active member of my sporting community and otherwise law abiding citizen. Now in my 50's I no longer smoke cannabis due to it's illegality and scarcity but I do use oil medicinally. It is incredibly helpful and I can really feel the difference when I don't have any.

Thank you for reading. Have a Great Day!
