re Cannabis. I am a well-educated professional who works in a senior position for the NSW Government. I am also only several years from retirement - having worked solidly for almost 50 years. A doctor prescribed cannabis last year following failed surgeries and this has been a godsend - in many ways. This has allowed me to continue working full time and paying taxes. I would never ever consider driving a vehicle whilst under the influence but face a driving ban and fine each time I drive. Ironically I could utilise much stronger painkillers - such as Endone - and be allowed to drive?
