My name is _____, 57 years old. I am currently injured from work and use Cannabis for Pain and sleep aid. I am living with Prostate cancer diagnosed in 2016.

I have not had any negative affects using cannabis nor have i seen it negatively impact anyone's health that i know of.

It is absurd to think that a naturally growing plant that helps in so many ways can be demonised by those that have an agenda. One of the big hurdles users of cannabis have is the driving laws. It simply does not make any sense to penalise someone with Cannabis in their system yes even though it does not affect their driving ability as the effect has worn off from the night before...

I do not condone driving under the influence of Alcohol OR any other drug. But for heaven's sake, don't penalise cannabis users if they are driving without being under the influence!!!
