

10 ORDER FOR PAPERS—BANNING OF MOBILE PHONES IN NSW SCHOOLS

Mrs Houssos moved, according to notice: That, under standing order 52, there be laid upon the table of the House within 14 days of the date of passing of this resolution all documents, in the possession, custody or control of the Minister for Education and Early Learning, the Department of Education, the Premier, the office of the Premier or the Department of Premier and Cabinet relating to the banning of mobile phones in New South Wales Schools:

- (a) all documents, including
 - (i) all reports, briefings, memorandum, emails, email attachments and draft answers to Legislative Council Questions on Notice created since 1 January 2022, relating to the banning of mobile phones in New South Wales schools,
 - (ii) all correspondence, including emails and text messages, between the Minister for Education and Early Learning, the office of the Minister for Education and Early Learning, the Department of Education, the Premier, the office of the Premier or the Department of Premier and Cabinet created since 4 September 2022 relating to the banning of mobile phones in New South Wales schools,
 - (iii) all correspondence between the Department of Education and schools created since 1 January 2022 relating to the banning of mobile phones in New South Wales schools,
 - (iv) all documents, including internal reports, briefings, memorandum, emails, email attachments, correspondence and reports or briefings produced by consultants created since 1 January 2022 relating to the banning of mobile phones in New South Wales schools,
 - (v) all reports, presentations and correspondence, including the records of any and all attachments to any emails, sent to, from and/or between the Department of Education's senior executive staff created since 1 January 2022 involving any plans, proposals, policies and/or draft policies relating to the banning of mobile phones in New South Wales schools, and
 - (vi) any legal or other advice regarding the scope or validity of this order of the House created as a result of this order of the House.

Debate ensued.

Mrs Mitchell moved: That the question be amended by:

- (1) Omitting "14 days" and inserting instead "21 days".
- (2) In paragraph (a)(i) inserting "centrally held" before "reports, briefings, memorandum".
- (3) In paragraph (a)(iii) inserting "Secretary or Deputy Secretaries of the" before "Department of Education".

Debate continued.

Question: That the amendments of Mrs Mitchell be agreed to—put and passed.

Original question, as amended put: That, under standing order 52, there be laid upon the table of the House within 21 days of the date of passing of this resolution the following documents, in the possession, custody or control of the Minister for Education and Early Learning, the Department of Education, the Premier, the office of the Premier or the Department of Premier and Cabinet relating to the banning of mobile phones in New South Wales Schools:

- (a) all documents, including
 - (i) all centrally held reports, briefings, memorandum, emails, email attachments and draft answers to Legislative Council Questions on Notice created since 1 January 2022, relating to the banning of mobile phones in New South Wales schools,

- (ii) all correspondence, including emails and text messages, between the Minister for Education and Early Learning, the office of the Minister for Education and Early Learning, the Department of Education, the Premier, the office of the Premier or the Department of Premier and Cabinet created since 4 September 2022 relating to the banning of mobile phones in New South Wales schools,
- (iii) all correspondence between the Secretary or Deputy Secretaries of the Department of Education and schools created since 1 January 2022 relating to the banning of mobile phones in New South Wales schools,
- (iv) all documents, including internal reports, briefings, memorandum, emails, email attachments, correspondence and reports or briefings produced by consultants created since 1 January 2022 relating to the banning of mobile phones in New South Wales schools,
- (v) all reports, presentations and correspondence, including the records of any and all attachments to any emails, sent to, from and/or between the Department of Education's senior executive staff created since 1 January 2022 involving any plans, proposals, policies and/or draft policies relating to the banning of mobile phones in New South Wales schools, and
- (vi) any legal or other advice regarding the scope or validity of this order of the House created as a result of this order of the House.

The House divided.

Ayes23
 Noes 15
 Majority.....8

AYES

Banasiak	Graham	Pearson
Borsak	Higginson	Primrose
Boyd	Houssos	Roberts
Buttigieg (teller)	Hurst	Searle
D'Adam (teller)	Jackson	Secord
Donnelly	Latham	Sharpe
Faehrmann	Mookhey	Veitch
Field	Moriarty

NOES

Amato	MacDonald	Poulos
Barrett (teller)	Maclaren-Jones	Rath
Farlow (teller)	Mallard	Taylor
Farraway	Martin	Tudehope
Franklin	Mitchell	Ward

PAIRS

Moselmane

Fang

Question resolved in the affirmative.