SPEAKER, Mr. (HONORABLE EDMUND BARTON):
 Personal explanation re observations of the Honorable J. Service, 928; re alleged obstruction on the part of Mr. Speaker when a private member of the House, 3086.
 Observations as to regulation of the refreshment-room, 2548.
 Statement of practice in regard to taking the vote of an honorable member who, although in the House, has not heard the question put, 2709.
 Requires Serjeant-at-Arms to remove an honorable member (Mr. A. G. Taylor), 2901, 2967.
 Statement of procedure adopted in case of a charge of unworthy conduct made against an honorable member, 2935.
 Statement as to Council's Message re Matrimonial Causes Act Amendment Bill (Privilege), 3601.
 Observations as to nomination of honorable members to act upon select committees, 3668.
 Exclusion of strangers—statement as to consideration of the subject by the Standing Orders Committee, 4981.
 Observations as to abuse of motions of adjournment, 4993.
Rulings of:
 Continuous sitting of the House—practice in reference to business before the House at hour appointed for meeting on a second day, 1043, 1044.
 Honorable member who persists in disregarding the authority of the Chair will be named, 80.
 Informal petitions—petition of the Tamworth corporation, not having the common seal, cannot be entertained, 239; petition presented by honorable member for East Sydney (Mr. Copeland) does not conclude with a prayer, and cannot, therefore, be received, 1466.
 Motion for adjournment of this House made in the course of a debate cannot be amended, but must be confined to the words "that this House do now adjourn," 1030.
 No rule restrains the introduction of two or more bills relating to the same subject and containing similar provisions, 231.
 Privilege—question of privilege cannot be raised on motion for the adjournment of the House, 919; proceedings of the Intercolonial Convention do not involve a question of privilege, 925, 980; questions referring to the vacancy of seats are treated as matters of privilege, 1184.
 Railway Passes to Tramway Employees—asking of a question to ascertain the intention of the Government not to be regarded as anticipating debate on a motion already on the paper, 507.
 Unparliamentary language—"Hireling," as applied to any member of the House, 937; assertion that an honorable member makes "inane or insane" interruptions, 939; application to an honorable member of the term "boss larrikin of this House," 1018.

Rulings of:

The House having heard the causes for which it has been summoned can enter upon business even before the speech from the throne has been dealt with, 19.
 Railway Route Committee—motion to appoint fifteen members to the same, in contravention of standing orders, 521.
 Bill for compensation for land taken for roads, motion for message to recommend: perhaps premature before leave has been given to introduce the bill referred to, 217.
 Charges of malversation against a minister of the Crown should not be made except upon a specific motion, 78.
 Fire Brigades Bill—motion for third reading—debate having gone through proper form, in which case an amendment to omit all words after "That" having been proposed and fully debated, and the question embraced in the amendment having been put, debate is considered as closed, 304.
 Inconvenient and irregular on part of honorable member to attribute motives to honorable members of another chamber, 528.
 Motion for leave to bring in a bill to prohibit the sale of liquor on the Sabbath-day—title of the bill indicates that it is one which affects trade; it should therefore be introduced in Committee, 41.
 Motion re Government business on Tuesdays interpretation of, 565, 566, 662, 791, 1103.
 Questions—the production of papers can be asked for by question, but it is more convenient that they be moved for in the ordinary way, 28; question by Mr. A. G. Taylor, to an honorable member not a minister, relates to no business before the House (the only category under which it could properly come), and therefore cannot be put, 40; questions should be confined as much as possible to the object of eliciting information; anything appearing in a question which does not seem calculated to effect that object should be omitted, 50; honorable member asking a question is entitled to certain latitude by way of explanation, but may not argue or debate the matter, 1192; questions which refer to the private affairs of public servants are inadmissible, 4414; question for the purpose of obtaining information already contained in a return or other public document is inadmissible, 4414.
 Unparliamentary for an honorable member to call for division unless he intends to give effect to the call by his vote, 48.
 Constitution Act Amendment Bill (No. 2)—objection to amendment in clause 3 is taken too late; the only way to deal with the matter is to recommit the bill, 1731.
 Honorable member will not be in order in reading a letter which refers to a debate in the House, 1823, 1824. The strict rule is that no reference may be made to a previous debate, but in practice a merely casual or incidental reference is frequently unnoticed, 1562, 1563.

9 October, 1883, to 1 November, 1884.

Rulings of:

Land taken for roads, &c.—resolution (moved by Mr. Vaughn) is an initiatory step towards public expenditure; the address asking for Governor's message should be considered in Committee, 1102.

Butchers' Shops Sunday-closing Bill—affects trade, and ought, therefore, to have been introduced in Committee, 1131.

Honorable member wishing to challenge any decision given by the Chair at a previous sitting can do so only by motion on notice, 1158.

Constitution Act Amendment Bill—it is not within the province of the Chair to determine whether the bill being an amendment of the Constitution Act, it is necessary for the Imperial Parliament to pass an amending bill; the functions of the Chair are to determine matters arising in the House, and not to travel beyond the determination of the House, 1314; amendments of the Legislative Council infringe privileges of the House, 1678; but it is for the House to decide what alterations made by the Council are material, 1680.

Election of Ministers—decision of the Committee of Elections and Qualifications re seats of Mr. Reid and Mr. Suttor, writs will not be issued immediately, 1314; precedents, 1369; the Elections and Qualifications Committee's "determination and report" is a decision, and not a mere report, 1371.

Motion of adjournment—it is expected that honorable members when speaking on a motion for adjournment will speak on public subjects, and not indulge in mere personalities, 1825.

Observations re reception of deputations in ante-rooms of the House, 1500, 1501; no one has an absolute right to come within the precincts of the House for the purpose of presenting a petition, 1506.

Bathurst Electorate, Representation of—Mr. Speaker will not act upon the suggestion contained in a letter that he will "take such steps as will enable the constituency to be represented at an early date." The House being in session, Mr. Speaker will act only upon a resolution of the House declaring the seat vacant and the causes of such vacancy, 1509; question of privilege being involved, the House may declare the seat vacant without reference to the effect of the passing of the Constitution Act Amendment Bill by the Legislative Council, 1555.

Elections and Qualifications Committee's decision re the seats of Mr. Reid and Mr. Suttor—Mr. Speaker's decision that the seats were consequently vacant involved his being of opinion that they had determined the point referred to them, 1565.

Members of the Committee of Elections and Qualifications are not deprived of right to vote in the House, 1577.

Charges against an honorable member should be made upon a specific motion, 2001.

Rulings of:

Motions for returns already ordered and printed—notices of such motions will not appear upon the paper until attention is called to the subject, and the honorable member giving the notice requests that it may appear, 1577; in the event of such a notice appearing on the paper, an honorable member may move, as a matter of privilege, that it be expunged, 1578.

Mr. Speaker having directed the clerk to read the orders of the day, that business cannot be intercepted by a motion for the adjournment of the House, 1587.

Breach of Privilege—Mr. Speaker has conferred upon him by the House power to bring offences under the notice of the House when they occur within the House, but offences which occur outside the House can be dealt with by the House only, 1602.

Treasurer not out of order in making a statement of ministerial intentions with regard to finance on a motion to go into Committee of Ways and Means, 1900.

Although it has been permitted to honorable members by courtesy to interject to correct a misstatement, that permission is altogether an indulgence, and is a relaxation of the rules of the House, 1902.

Honorable members cannot move the adjournment of the House in order to reply to a question, 1834.

Honorable members should not take advantage of a motion of adjournment to ask questions of ministers, 2066.

Amendment to add certain words to a question being negatived, no other amendment can be entertained except by way of addition to the words of the motion, 2112.

Motion affirming the desirableness of increasing the police force being a mere abstract motion need not be introduced in Committee, 2113.

Amendment in regard to the appropriation of the vote for the North Shore ferry is a mere abstract expression of opinion, and need not, therefore, be made in Committee, 2118.

Honorable member may not discuss a bill which has left the Assembly for the purpose of being dealt with in the other House, 3254.

Quite regular for an honorable member to introduce a second bill on the same subject as a bill which he has already before the House, 2796.

Not competent for an honorable member to move in the House that a new clause be added to a bill, 2799.

Not the practice to move the recommittal of a bill at any stage beyond the motion for the third reading, 2799.

Motion as to locality maps of mining districts does not involve an expenditure of public money, 2877.

Clerk, having been called upon to read the orders of the day, honorable members may not interrupt the reading of the orders with a personal explanation, 2496.

Rulings of:

Standing orders and rules of the House of Commons applicable to the proceedings of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales laid upon the table (11 March), 2240; honorable member (Mr. A. G. Taylor) named for wilfully disregarding the authority of the Chair, 2865, 4702; business of Committee having been interrupted, and delayed in order that a standing order may be put in force, the motion that the House again resolve itself into Committee should be treated as formal, 2866; new rules are in force by reason of our 1st standing order, which has received the approval of the Governor-in-Council: further than this, they have not received the approval of the Governor-in-Council, 2901; new rule as to motions of adjournment applies only to motions made in the course of a debate upon a substantive question, 3064; new rules, if valid at all, would be equally valid if not laid upon the table by Mr. Speaker, 3086; they were laid upon the table by Mr. Speaker to insure their being printed and distributed among honorable members, 3101; observations upon the law of Parliament as to "tedious repetition," 4701.

Reference in debates of Legislative Council to the action of this House should be dealt with as a matter of privilege, the matter cannot be referred to on a motion of adjournment, 3336.

Tobacco Bill, clause 7, is not within the order of leave, 2304; on motion for adoption of report it is competent to move the recommitment of the bill in order to reconsider the clause with a view to its omission, 2304; clause 5 is improperly before the House; it relates to trade, and therefore ought to have been specifically included in the resolution agreed to by the Committee, 2307.

Tobacco Bill (No. 2), resolution upon which bill is to be founded has objects affecting trade, but being taken as a part of the financial proposals of the Government may be considered in Committee of Ways and Means instead of in an ordinary committee of the whole, 2352, 2372; no instance of objection having ever been taken to a resolution being agreed to after it has been received and read the second time, following the practice of the House, therefore, the objection will not be allowed, 2353.

Motion for second reading of a bill is not one of those which can ordinarily be moved by one honorable member for another, 2896. House has allowed second reading of a bill to be moved by one honorable member for another when there is no opposition to the bill, 4089.

Motion by Mr. Luscombe in reference to matters affecting the honorable member for Gundagai cannot be called as a formal motion, 3742.

Honorable member in moving adjournment of a debate will not be in order in speaking upon the main question, 4688.

Rulings of:

Customs Duties Bill—clauses 9 and 10 affect trade, and not having had the authorisation of any committee, are not properly before the House, 2349.

Order of the day for the further consideration of a bill in Committee having been read by the Clerk, Mr. Speaker must leave the Chair forthwith, 3541.

Patronage at the Treasury—amendment by Mr. A. G. Taylor is not relevant to the motion and cannot be put, 3594.

Motion by Mr. Buchanan re Taylor v. Harnett cannot be put without notice, 3885, 3889.

Officer of the House should not be censured upon motion of adjournment, 4649.

Reading of newspapers and books by honorable members in their places—rule against the practice is laid down in "May," but out of consideration for the comfort of honorable members is not enforced, 4690.

Power to call attention to tedious repetition on the part of an honorable member is placed solely in the hands of Mr. Speaker, 4690.

Crown Lands Bill—statement of the law of Parliament upon the challenge of honorable members' votes, 4806; as to procedure, 4809, 4815, 4818; honorable members whose names are included in a motion to disallow votes should, according to parliamentary practice, withdraw, 4818; amendments made by Legislative Council infringe upon the privileges of the Assembly, 5460; objections by Mr. A. G. Taylor that bill goes beyond order of leave, is beyond the title, and is not sufficiently covered by message from the Crown—cannot be sustained, 5581; negating of first amendment on motion that Mr. Speaker do leave the chair will not permit amendment of Mr. McLaughlin to be put, 5583; amendment in clause 67 is relevant to the clause; too late after bill returned from Legislative Council to take objection that clause is beyond order of leave, 5584; usual practice to give reasons for disagreement with Council's amendments, 5662.

Honorable member cannot move a resolution of which another honorable member has given notice, 4833.

House has ample power to rescind any standing order without reference to the Crown; if the House rescinds standing order respecting exclusion of strangers and passes a sessional order the latter will be binding on the House during the session, 5034; provision regulating exclusion of strangers in the House of Commons is not a standing order, 5034.

Post Office Approaches Improvement Bill—provisions of the bill are beyond order of leave, 5074.

Municipal Ways Improvement Bill—retrospective provision of the bill is in the order of leave, 5121.

9 October, 1883, to 1 November, 1884.

Rulings of:

No necessity for a message to authorise the imposition or increase of a rate, 5625.

Appropriation Bill—not usual to take the second reading of the bill on the same day as that on which it is introduced; bill, if passed before needful, will not be presented by Mr. Speaker for the royal assent until the proper time had arrived, unless the House should pass a resolution requesting him to do so, 5696.

Bills are allowed with concurrence to pass from one stage to another at the end of the session; but this practice extends only to Government measures, 6047.

Loan Bill is sufficiently covered by order of leave, 6067.

Civil Service Bill—Council's amendments may be taken into consideration forthwith, if the business be urgent, and if the amendments have been printed, 6126; amendments of the Legislative Council in clauses 51 and 54 infringe on the privileges of the House, 6128.

Ordinarily no motion is made that a report of a select committee be read unless it contains something in the nature of a charge against an honorable member, 6142.

See BARTON, Honorable EDMUND.

SPEAKER, Mr. DEPUTY (Mr. A. CAMERON):

Railway: Murrumburrah to Blayney—amendment by Mr. Vaughn to refer the question to a railway route committee defeats by a side-wind a previous decision of the House, 2322.

Calls upon leader of the House to take action necessary to prevent disorder, 4103.

Honorable member may not impugn conduct of a fellow-member upon motion of adjournment, 4099.
