Sydney Corporation Act Amendment Bill (No. 2), Com., 1528.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (Assembly),

Election of, 105, 1953.

Opinions of, reported to the House for Mr. Speaker's decision, 1034, 1087, 1089, 1091, 1167, 1195.

Opinions of—

Criminal Law Amendment Bill—Clause 3, amendment by Mr. Buchanan enabling barristers and attorneys to perform all preliminary work and to practice in “all courts” without the intervention of each other, is not inconsistent with a previous decision of the Committee and is therefore admissible, 1085; the same amendment is within the scope of the bill, 1087; amendment by Mr. Buchanan enabling barristers and attorneys to perform all preliminary work and to practice in “such courts” is admissible, the use of the word “such” confining the application of the amendment to criminal courts, 1089; amendment by Mr. A. G. Taylor giving to barristers and attorneys “an equal right to practice in all courts for the trial of offences under this act” is inadmissible, the Committee having already negatived a similar amendment, 1091; clause 342, amendment by Mr. A. G. Taylor permitting attorneys to practice in all courts in which prisoners would be tried under the bill is inadmissible, because the same question has been already decided by the Committee, 1167; amendment by Mr. A. G. Taylor with the same object in view is not in order, it being substantially the same as an amendment which had at a previous stage been ruled inadmissible, 1169; bill is irregularly before the Committee, clause 346 involving an expenditure of public money not recommended by a message from the Crown, 1195.

Exception having been taken to an honorable member's remark, it should not be repeated until Chairman's decision is given, 1135.

Honorable members must not animadvert upon the action of Chairman without taking the course usually resorted to when Chairman's decisions are disagreed with, 1137.

Judges' Salaries and Pensions Bill—Clause 3, providing for an increase in the pensions of retired judges, within limits of title and scope of leave, 1034.

Licensing Bill—Amendment by Mr. O'Connor in clause 17, providing that no member of a club shall be entitled to be supplied with liquor on Sunday unless he be a bonâ fide traveller is admissible in a bill regulating the sale of liquor, because there is in the original Licensing Act a section specially exempting clubs from its operation, 1668; new clause involving expenditure of public money cannot be moved, bill not being introduced by message from the Crown, 1675; Committee considering amendments of the Upper House may not at that time amend anything which Legislative Assembly themselves have passed at a previous stage of the bill, 1873.

Unparliamentary Language — Honorable members must not reflect upon the action of other honorable members, 1136; must not remark that honorable members voted not knowing what they voted for, 1136; must not assert that a number of members are idiotic, 1136.

See CAMERON, Mr. A.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES, DEPUTY (Assembly),
Opinions of—

Licensing Bill—Clause 5 does not necessarily add to the public expenditure, 1599; clause 8, amendment to omit “two” with a view to insert in lieu thereof “four,” question that word proposed to be omitted stand part of the clause being negatived, question that the word “four” be inserted must have priority, 1620.

Opinion of, reported, 1599.

SPEAKER, Mr. (Honorable E. BARTON),

Election of, as, 23.

Rulings of—

Criminal Law Amendment Bill—Clause 3, amendment by Mr. Buchanan, enabling barristers and attorneys to practice in “all courts” without the intervention of each other, refers to courts which are in their nature not criminal courts, and is therefore outside the scope of the bill, 1088; amendment by Mr. Buchanan, enabling barristers and attorneys to practice in “such courts” without the intervention of each other, should be left open for further discussion, the word “such” being held to have that relative signification which would bring it within the meaning of the interpretation clause, 1090; amendment by Mr. A. G. Taylor, giving to barristers and attorneys “an equal right to practice in all courts for the trial of offences under this act,” is identical in substance with an amendment already negatived, 1092; clause 342, amendment by Mr. A. G. Taylor permitting attorneys to practice in all courts in which prisoners would be tried under the bill, is inadmissible, its object being identical with that of another amendment already disposed of, 1168; clauses 337, 416, 419, and 420 do not contain provisions for expenditure of public money—all, therefore, cannot be held to have originated improperly in the Upper House, 1402; point of order in clause 346 taken by Mr. A. G. Taylor at the wrong stage, 1205; clause 346 does not necessarily involve an expenditure of public money; bill therefore properly before the House, 1317.

Rulings of—

- Crown Lands, Alienation of, by Conditional Purchase—amendment approving of the action of the Government in suspending sale of land by public auction, moved by Mr. Spring, in order, 520, 524.
 Disorderly Behaviour—honorable members who refuse to apologise without reserve when requested to do so by the Chair will be named, 1107; honorable member (Mr. Buchanan) named, 1920.
 General rule in debate not to refer in terms of condemnation to a previous decision of the House, 771, 846.
 German Immigration—motion re does not necessarily involve increase in public expenditure, motion therefore properly before the House without a message, 1377.
 Honorable Member who has spoken on a question cannot upon an amendment discuss the original question a second time, but must confine himself to the amendment, 1916.
 Honorable member not in order in referring to a question of order already decided, 550.
 Honorable member for The Upper Hunter (Mr. McElhone) declared guilty of vexatiously and wilfully interfering with the orderly conduct of business—attention of the Leader of the House called to Standing Orders 95 and 96, 534.
 House having adjourned on motion, meeting at a later hour constitutes a sitting, 1947.
 Informal Petitions, 130, 845, 1230.
 Inscribed Stock Bill, Council's amendments, had they been made in the House of Lords would not be considered by the House of Commons, 740.
 Interruptions irregular, but certain latitude having been allowed, practice will not be checked when adopted to a moderate extent, say, one relevant interjection, 186.
 Irregular Question—question by Mr. McElhone respecting uniform of police violates rule which forbids the introduction into a question of any matter involving opinion, inference, or argument, 150.
 Irregular Question as to Mr. Hardy's leave of absence, 1504.
 Judges' Salaries and Pensions Bill—object of bill within order of leave, 1023; clause 3, providing for an increase of the pensions of retired judges, not within order of leave, 1035.
 Land Laws, working of the, question as to—there being no question on the notice paper, honorable member is entitled simply to add so much to the question as to make clear his meaning and no more, 65.
 Legality of the Convention of Parliament—In order to impugn the legality of the convention of Parliament before Governor's speech read, 1940; not within Speaker's province to rule on point raised by Mr. A. G. Taylor as to legality of convention, 1945.
 Licensing Bill, amendment in clause 20 providing that members of clubs shall not be supplied with liquor on Sunday unless bond fide travellers within scope and title of the bill, 1770.

Rulings of—

Motion re Children's Railway Passes is merely an expression of opinion and does not necessarily involve an increase in expenditure, 1896.

Motion, Alteration of notice of, 375.

Motion censuring Parkes-Robertson Government—motion equivalent to transaction of business, and cannot be put until Mr. Speaker has been presented to the Governor, 25.

Motions relating to the business of the House always have precedence, 185.

Motion to amend Electoral Act—omission of certain words having been agreed to, motion cannot be withdrawn, 1057.

No debate can ensue on motion that a bill be now read a first time or that a bill be printed, 741.

Private bills passed by the House last session, and not completed in the Upper House, can, under standing order, be reintroduced and passed through all their stages at once; no objection can be taken to the third reading of a bill so reintroduced, 1969.

Privilege—defamation of the House, motion by the Premier involving a matter of privilege can be made without notice; proceedings adopted in reference to reported defamation of the House by the honorable member for Mudgee (Mr. A. G. Taylor), in accordance with principle underlying procedure of the House of Commons in similar cases, 913; suggests procedure which should follow preliminary motion, 914; communicates substance of resolution of the House to the honorable member for Mudgee, 921.

Questions, alteration of—debatable matter in questions may be eliminated by direction of Mr. Speaker, 741.
