Motion by Mr. R. B. Wilkinson that no useful legislation can be passed by the Legislative Assembly as at present constituted, and, therefore, in the best interests of the country it should be dissolved, 6920; motion ruled out of order, 6923.

Volumes 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66.

DISORDER IN COMMITTEE:

Motion by Sir George Dibbs that the Clerk read from the Votes and Proceedings of 10th May the record respecting breach of privilege by Mr. Grahame, agreed to, and record read; obs. by Mr. Grahame; motion by Sir George Dibbs that Mr. Grahame has wilfully and vexatiously interrupted the orderly conduct of the business of the House, and is hereby adjudged guilty of contempt; and that the Speaker do by his warrant commit the said Mr. Grahame to the custody of the Serjeant-at-Arms, to be detained in custody until released by order of the House, with such conditions for payment of fees as to this House shall seem meet, 6912; debated by Mr. Reid, Mr. Crick (who moved an amendment to omit all the words after the word "House" with a view to the insertion of the words "and has incurred the censure of this House") 6913; Mr. Barton, 6915; Mr. Hayes, amendment withdrawn, Mr. Cann, 6918; Mr. Cook, Mr. Rae, Mr. Bavister, 6919; motion agreed to; obs. by Mr. Grahame; motion by Sir George Dibbs that the House having heard the apology of Mr. Grahame, accepts the apology, and requests Mr. Speaker to admonish the hon. member, and directs that he be released from custody, agreed to, 6956; Mr. Grahame admonished by Mr. Speaker, 6957.

ELECTIONS AND QUALIFICATIONS COMMITTEE:

Members sworn, 293, 343, 391, 552.

FORMAL BUSINESS:

Obs. respecting by Mr. Speaker, 1133.

FORMAL MOTIONS:

Motion by Sir George Dibbs that it be a sessional order that on Mr. Speaker calling over the business-paper with a view to formal motions, no motion shall be objected to as formal, unless at least four members rise in their places and object; provided, nevertheless, that no motion shall be taken as formal which is objected to by a minister of the Crown, 981; debated by Mr. Neild (who moved as an amendment that all the words after the word "object," be omitted), 981; Mr. E. M. Clark, Mr. Barton, 983; Mr. Houghton, Mr. Carruthers, 984; Mr. Crick, 985; Mr. T. Walker, 986; Mr. Garvan, Mr. G. D. Clark, Mr. Reid, 987; Sir Henry Parkes, 989; amendment and motion withdrawn, 990; motion by Mr. Frank Farnell that it be a sessional order that, on motions being called over by Mr. Speaker, they shall be deemed to be taken as formal, unless three hon. members rise in their places and object; debated by Sir George Dibbs, 2653; Mr. G. D. Clark, Mr. Rae, Mr. Frank Farnell, in reply, 2654; motion withdrawn, 2655.

INFORMAL PETITIONS:

Obs. respecting by Mr. Speaker, 605.

NOTICES OF MOTION:

Obs. by Mr. Speaker respecting, 17.

PARLIAMENTARY ALLOWANCES:

Motion by Mr. G. D. Clark that in future no member of the House be entitled to receive his parliamentary allowance for any month unless he has been present at least two-thirds of the sittings held, 4946; motion ruled out of order, 4947.

SEAT VACATED:

Mr. J. Nobbs, 6425.

SESSIONAL COMMITTEES:

Committees appointed, 958, 959.

SESSIONAL ORDERS:

Sessional orders passed, 176, 177, 178, 184, 219, 981.

SPEAKER, MR. [HON. SIR JOSEPH PALMER ABBOTT, KT., Wentworth], RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF: Absentee-tax: Proposed amendment by Mr. Edden, on motion by Mr. Chapman, would not be in order, 3327.

Additional Estimates: The ruling of the Chairman of Committees that the items under the head of Executive and Legislative were properly before the Committee was correct; the course pursued had been in accordance with the practice of the House for many years, 7675.

Additional Sitting Day: Motion by Sir George Dibbs was in order, 6822.

Agreements Validating Act Repeal Bill: In the absence of the hon. member in charge another hon. member can move postponement of order of the day, 2419.

Agricultural Holdings Bill: Does not affect trade, and is therefore in order, 6109.

Amendments: As to course adopted in moving, 3669.

Appropriation Bill: The same rule as to relevancy applies to the Appropriation Bill as applies to other bills, 7755, 7756; Mr. McMillan was in order in his remarks with reference to the system of keeping the public accounts, 7758.

Australian Federation: Resolution to consider proposals of convention in Committee of the Whole was in order, 2105; as to form of amendment by Mr. Want, 2107, 2108; proposed amendment by Mr. O'Sullivan not in order, 2112; proposed amendment by Mr. Rae could not be moved because it would be inconsistent with the decision of the House, 3017; proposed amendment by Mr. Langwell out of order, 3045.

30 August, 1892, to 13 June, 1893.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):

Australian Gaslight Company Electric Lighting Bill: See "Second reading of a bill," 4653.

Australian Rights Purchase Bill: The bill is in order as far as the advertisements are concerned, 4048; as to defect in title, 8259.

Bank Issue Bill: Amendment by Mr. O'Sullivan on motion for suspension of standing orders was in order, 6515; not in order to discuss the proposed legislation, 6515, 6517, 6518; Mr. Schey directed to discontinue his speech, 6538.

Bay Road Railway-station Bill: On the motion for the third reading the question of title to certain land could not be discussed, 7313; not in order to discuss the bill, 7470.

Broken Hill Strike: Motion of adjournment by Mr. Levien to discuss the trial of the Broken Hill strikers was out of order, the matter having been debated on the previous day, 2566, 2610.

Business Hours: Motion by Sir George Dibbs was in order, 7671.

Business-paper: A bill ordered to be read a second time "this day six months," must appear on the business-paper for the date so fixed should the House be in session, 3953.

Camel Driving Restriction Bill: Being an interference with trade should have been introduced in Committee, 5088.

Chairman of Committees: In reference to notice of motion by Mr. Neild, the House cannot act on anything that has occurred in Committee without a report having been made, 4715; Mr. Garrard could not discuss the conduct of the Chairman of Committees upon a motion for adjournment, 5173; Mr. Neild could not raise point of order as to there being no Chairman on going into Supply, 6125, 6126; motion by Mr. Caruthers for leave to debate the point of order raised by Mr. Neild on motion to go into Committee of Supply was out of order, 6127.

Charges Against Judges, &c.: An hon. member is not at liberty to make charges against judges or other public functionaries unless he is prepared to substantiate them, 380; must not charge any gentleman occupying a judicial position with stating a falsehood, 1400.

Chicago Exhibition Appointments: Remarks of Mr. Crick on motion for suspension of standing orders to deal with the Consolidated Revenue Fund Bill not in order, 1674.

Chinese Opium Dens: Motion of adjournment by Mr. Kelly, out of order, a motion almost identical having been already discussed, 8309.

Civil Servants' Salaries: Motion by Mr. Neild was not out of order, 4947.

Civil Service Pensions: Amendment by Mr. Miller on motion by Mr. G. D. Clark was in order, 2228; amendment by Mr. Rae not in order, 2228.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):
Consolidated Revenue Fund Bill (No. 3): In regard to latitude of discussion there is no difference between a supply bill and any other bill, 4558, 4561.

Continued Irrelevance: Mr. Haynes directed to discontinue his speech, 6069.

Current Account Depositors Bill: On motion to go into Committee for leave to introduce desirable that proposed amendment by Mr. Haynes should be moved in Committee, 7462.

Debates: Irregular to refer to past debates during a current session, 4626.

Diseases in Sheep Acts Further Amendment Bill: Mr. Brunker too late in taking objection relative to the order of leave, the bill having been read the second time, 1058.

Disorder in Committee: Could not have any cognisance of what occurred in Committee, 3848; having regard to the decision in the case of Taylor versus Barton do not think the House has power to suspend Mr. Grahame for the remainder of the sitting, 6915; but the House has power to adjudge a member guilty of contempt, 6919; a motion having been carried to commit Mr. Grahame to the custody of the Serjeant-at-Arms, the hon. member would be brought up later in the evening, 6920; Mr. Grahame admonished, 6957.

Dissent from Ruling: Too late for Mr. Rae to dissent from ruling in reference to motion of adjournment to discuss the trial of the Broken Hill strikers, 2568; not a course very often taken, 2568.

Dissolution of the House: Motion by Mr. R. B. Wilkinson out of order, the same question having been previously debated this session, 6923.

District Government Bill: As to motion for adjournment of debate on second reading by Mr. Edden, 2693.

Division List: As to omission of name of Mr. Sharp, 3488.

Documents: An hon. member quoting from a document cannot be called upon to lay it upon the table of the House before the conclusion of his speech, 197; Mr. S. Smith would not be in order in reading a certain document, 772.

Error by Returning Officer: The motion submitted for amendment of return of the election of Sir George Dibbs was similar to that usually made after a general election, 5726.

Fisheries: Motion by Mr. Frank Farnell was only an expression of opinion and did not necessarily involve expenditure, 3387.

Fisheries Act Amendment Bill: Decision on point raised that the bill was not in order postponed, 4663; the bill was properly before the House, 6597.

Fisheries and Oyster Fisheries Regulation Bill: Bill out of order, 3111.

Formal Business: In future shall not notice any objections unless hon. members rise in their places, 1134.

Volumes 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66.

SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):

Formal Motions: Too late to object after an hon. member has been called upon to move a formal motion, 184; nothing in point of order by Mr. Neild that Mr. Waddell, being interested, could not object to motion being taken as formal, 1606; cannot go back after an objection has been made, 1607; motion by Mr. Frank Farnell very objectionable in form, 2653.

Government Business: To be taken at 7 o'clock under the new arrangement of business, 3972; should not have allowed bill to be introduced by Colonial Treasurer before 7 o'clock, 4651; sessional order, providing that after 7 o'clock Government business shall be dealt with, applied to motions of adjournment, 5405.

Governor's Speech: Questions cannot be asked nor can petitions be presented before the Governor's Speech has been read, 17.

Income-tax Assessment Bill: Mr. See entitled to reply on debate on motion "That the bill be printed and read the second time tomorrow," 4404; bill beyond the order of leave, 4603; it is the practice when a bill is withdrawn on the ground that it is beyond the order of leave, to have the order of leave read, and to reintroduce the bill on that reading, 4604; this being a machinery bill dealing with details, hon. members should not be restricted on the second reading to the same extent as when required to discuss only the principles of a bill, 4739; the House having ordered that the words shall stand, the question "that the bill be now read the second time," must be put, 4761; amendment that the bill be referred to a select committee was in order, 4763; as to withdrawal of amendment, 4765; Mr. Burdekin's speech of unwarrantable length, 5148.

Income-tax Bill: Amendment by Mr. Carruthers to motion for the second reading of resolutions from ways and means was in order, 4333; amendment by Mr. Molesworth on motion that report be adopted was out of order, 4609.

Interjections: Will not be allowed during debate, 21; should be discontinued, 27; only one course open if they continue, 34; calculated to provoke disorder, 110; conversation cannot go on between hon. members, 140; hon. members ought not to be interrupted, 143; do not want to resort to extreme measures, 398; have power to remove any hon. member who interferes with orderly debate, 434; Mr. Speaker Peel quoted, 454; have led to scandalous occurrences in the House, 485; disorderly, especially when obstructing the speech of a minister, 499; did not wish to take extreme steps to prevent interruptions, 500; would exercise power of removing a member from the Chamber if he interrupted debate, 502, 2806; obs. as to continued interjections, 505, 640, 1112, 1113; hon. members disrespectful to the Chair in continuing interjec-tions, 618; ministers should not set a bad example, 1205, 1960; if they are continued will name the hon. member, 1211; rule of House of Commons as quoted, 4436; in the last motion of censure debate in the House of Commons there were not half a dozen offensive interruptions in the whole debate, 5055.

Labour Protection Bill: Clause 2 being identical with a clause in another bill dealt with this session would have to be rejected in Committee, 8258.

Land Taxation: Motion by Mr. Carruthers out of order, 2627.

Leader of the Opposition: Mr. Reid in order in speaking as leader of the Opposition, 3897.

Legislative Council: The expression "The Council have had the audacity to throw out that bill" was not in order, 2514; also the expression "house of obstruction," 2937.

Liquor Traffic Local Option Bill: On point of order submitted from Committee: Amendment by Mr. Crick, on motion to introduce, was in order, 1109.

Loan Bill: Do not feel justified in putting the question for the second reading of the bill without notice, having no evidence that the session was nearly at an end, 7698.

Local Option Bill: On the motion "That the bill be printed, and the second reading stand an order of the day for Wednesday next," Mr. Haynes could move an amendment that some other day be appointed for the second reading, 6067.

Menindie Irrigation Bill: As to adjournment of the House before the third reading, 8359; Mr. Waddell directed to discontinue his speech, 8363; also Mr. Chapman, 8364.

Miners' Rights: Amendment proposed by Mr. Traill to motion by Mr. Tonkin not relevant, 5320.

Mining on Private Lands Bill: Could not allow third reading to be taken without compliance with standing order, 4356; on point of order referred from Committee was of opinion that new clause proposed by Mr. Reid, not being contradictory, was in order, 5009.

Ministerial Statement: Mr. McMillan could not reply to a ministerial statement in the absence of the leader of the Opposition, 6124.

Miscellaneous: Two notices of motion not to be given consecutively by one hon. member, 17; as to hour of adjournment for refreshment, 22; must decline to answer question by Mr. J. M. Toohey, as to a grant of money without the sanction of Parliament, 45; as to the reintroduction of bills, 185; statements by the head of the Government and the leader of the Opposition should not be of great length nor argumentative in character, 187; Mr. A. Hutchison not in order in putting a question to Mr. Speaker in regard to accommodation provided for hon. members, 343; postponement of notices of motion should be done on motion to that effect, 494;

30 August, 1892, to 13 June, 1893.

SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):

Mr. Schey not in order in reading a resolution by a society protesting against the "partisanship of the Government," 551; in leaving the chair propose to follow the practice adopted in the House of Commons, 778; an hon. member is not justified in criticising the conduct of another hon. member who has acted within his rights, 921; obs. as to admission of strangers, 963, 965; no reference may be made to what has happened in Committee, 1709; there are no speeches on the records of the House, 1936; obs. as to late sittings, 4479; people outside not allowed to comment on what has taken place in Parliament, 4651; when an hon. member rises he should address the Speaker, and wait until the Speaker calls him by name, 5170; as to the delivery of circulars and newspapers by the messengers of the House, 6075, 6076.

Misconduct: The House had no privileges outside of those conferred upon it by the Constitution Act under which it made its standing orders and the matter referred to by Mr. Haynes might well be allowed to drop, 6715.

Motions of Adjournment: The House had decided that the power of determining whether the subject-matter of a motion of adjournment was or was not a matter of urgent public importance did not rest with Mr. Speaker, 190, 193, 5468, 5471; Mr. Garvan out of order in his remarks on the law of life assurance unless he intended to show the necessity of legislation, 195, 199; notice of motion by Mr. Davis not in proper form, 296; not in order to discuss a question answered at an earlier period of the day, 1111; must decline to accept motion "That the question be now put," until the mover of the adjournment had had an opportunity of speaking to his motion, 1310; Mr. G. D. Clark's notice of motion was in order, but the hon. member must confine himself to a discussion of the administration of the licensing law, 1311; remarks of Mr. Willis on Crown lands assessment in order, 1439; Mr. Neild in order in calling attention upon motion of adjournment to the general character of appointments to the commission of the peace, 1501; not in order to discuss the method or policy of appointing magistrates, 1504; only the definite matter of which notice is given can be discussed, 2358, 3959; motion by Mr. Levien to discuss the trial of the Broken Hill strikers was not in order, as the matter was debated on the previous day, 2566, 2610; on motion of adjournment by Mr. McGowen to discuss "the position of employees of the state, as laid down by the Premier," hon. members could not allude to the case of Mr. Volk, previously debated, 6038; on motion of adjournment members are not allowed any latitude whatever, 6498; the question whether or not the subject-matter of a motion of adjournment is definite rests with the Speaker, 7044; motion by Mr. G. D. Clark almost identical with one already discussed by the House this session and therefore out of order, 7045; motion by Mr. G. D. Clark in reference to village settlements could be discussed without dealing with the Land Bill already on the order-paper, and was therefore in order, 7226; the sessional order that Government business take precedence on Thursday could not prevent a motion of adjournment on that day, 7550; one motion of adjournment having been ruled out of order another cannot be moved, 8248; motion by Mr. Kelly in reference to Chinese opium dens could not be discussed, 8309.

SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):

Motions of Censure: An hon. member ought not to prejudice a case that is sub judice, 457, 462, 463; explanation of effect of Mr. Cann's amendment, 495; Mr. Reid must be taken as speaking in reply if he goes on speaking as he has been doing, 526; not disorderly to say the Ministry created billets into which to put their partisans, 572; Mr. Copeland not in order in quoting Hansard, except from a report of a debate pending, 592, 654; Mr. Reid, in moving motion of censure, ought not to refer, except slightly, to matters outside the terms of the motion, 2759; under the amendment proposed by Mr. Waddell it was in order to discuss the probable loss of any measure then before the House, 2818; amendment by Mr. Waddell was relevant, 2836; proposed amendment by Mr. Cook on amendment by Mr. Waddell could not be moved, 2849; Mr. Copeland in order in his reference to the Land Bill, 2881; also Mr. Haynes, 2887.

Motor-driver Volk: Notice of motion for the production of papers did not anticipate motion of adjournment by Mr. G. D. Clark, 5202; the matter was of such very great importance that the House might be allowed to discuss the motion of adjournment again if it be now withdrawn, 5211.

Municipal Council of Sydney Electric Lighting Bill: Bill ruled out of order as beyond the order of leave, 7616.

Municipal Wharves Bill: No business other than Government business can be taken after 7 o'clock, 8201.

New Member Sworn: Rule of House of Commons quoted, 4118.

Notices of Motion: Cannot be given for a period which exceeds eight weeks, 2487.

Order of Business: Not responsible for ministers placing their business as they think proper, 1134; Mr. McMillan could not continue his remarks if any hon. member objected, 3051; did not think he should depart from the ordinary practice of allowing the leader of the Opposition to say a few words in reference to a ministerial statement, 3052; amendment by Mr. Neild, on motion by Sir George Dibbs, in order, 3670; the Government can give their time to private members if they think fit, 7882; under the sessional order no business other than Volumes 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.): Government business can be taken after 7 o'clock, 8201; must decline to put question to the House for the postponement of order of the day, 8201.

Orders of the Day: Are the property of the House, and any hon. member can move the motion for the introduction of bill, 4132.

Pamphlets: Very irregular to distribute pamphlets in the Chamber, either for or against the measure under discussion, 1004.

Papers on the Table: It is not in the province of a private member to lay documents on the table, 7184, 7185.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Bill: On amendment to recommit for reconsideration of certain clauses an amendment can be submitted in regard to any clause, 1843; only in order to advance reasons why a clause should or should not be recommitted, 1852; amendment by Mr. A'Beckett for reconsideration of clause 47 should not have been allowed, 1855.

Parliamentary Refreshment-room: As to effect of motion by Mr. G. D. Clark in view of the joint control of the two houses, 5142.

Parsons, J. L.: Amendment proposed by Mr. Crick for correspondence in relation to all appointments connected with the Chicago Exhibition was out of order, because the notice of motion did not indicate that it had any reference to appointments to the Chicago Exhibition, 4717; amendment proposed by Mr. Traill for all correspondence in connection with "all other appointments constituting a charge upon the same vote out of which it is proposed to pay Mr. Parsons, including the appointment of Mr. James Martin, M.P.," was not out of order, being relevant to the motion, 4719; latter part of amendment, "including the appointment of Mr. James Martin, M.P.," was out of order, because it anticipated a motion already on the order-paper, 4726.

Penny Postage: As to remarks of Mr. Gardner on motion by Mr. Chapman, 1785.

Personal Explanation: An hon. member cannot contradict a statement under cover of a personal explanation, 553; Mr. Danahey not in order in repeating statements from outside, 3579.

"Picturessque Atlas" Company: It is usual to grant leave to appear before a select committee unless there is some very strong objection, 4314; as to objection to prayer of petition, 4650.

Point of Order: May be taken at any time, and it stops all debate, 1199.

President of Legislative Council: An hon. member not justified in criticising conduct of, 1405.

Privilege: Matter mentioned by Mr. Crick as to his having been molested and robbed in Macquarie-street not one of privilege, 1578.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.): Progressive Land-tax: Amendment by Mr. Cotton, on the motion of Mr. Chapman, was in order, 1201.

Promoters of Bills: In future will only allow the solicitor for a bill to come behind the chair, 4084.

Questions: It is a violation of the tacit practice of Parliament to ask without notice questions as to matters which are not of an urgent nature, 66; question by Mr. Haynes in reference to Mining on Private Property Bill, not in order, 879; cannot be put to an hon. member who is absent, 1747; in asking a question without notice, it is not in order to attempt to do verbally what would not be in order if notice had been given, 1747, 2142; a motion having been objected to as formal not in order to ask a question on the subject of such motion, 1841; not in order to express an opinion in asking a question, 2071; must decline to answer question until occasion arises, 3668; as to alteration in question by Mr. V. Parkes, 4647; cannot control answers to questions, 7545.

Quorum: Disorderly to allege there was no quorum when there was one, 542.

Quotations: Mr. Reid not in order in quoting from Hansard of the present session in debate on motion of censure, 397; in order to quote from Hansard in reference to the present debate, 497; not in order to quote the comments of a newspaper on anything said in the House, 547, 6609, 6641; to read an opinion given outside the Chamber by some irresponsible persons, 842.

Railway Administration: Mr. Schey could not give notice of motion in the form proposed, 242.

Records of the House: The clerk is at all times permitted to read the, 6912.

Resignation of the Premier: Resolution declaring the seat vacant was necessary, 5483.

Rules of the House: Will not allow hon. members to speak of the application of any rule as "the gag," 4326.

Schey, Mr., M.P.: Position on the paper of notice of motion in reference to, 67; could not lay certain documents on the table, 1992, 2448.

Second Reading of a Bill: In the case of the Australian Gaslight Company Electric Lighting Bill, ordered to be read the second time "this day six months," it is in order at the expiration of that period for the hon. member in charge of the bill to move that it be "now read the second time," 4653.

Sessional Order as to New Business: Mr. Melville had a right to ask a question, 234.

Solvent Banks: Cannot control answers to questions, 7544.

Special Trams and Trains: Proposed amendment by Mr. Rose out of order, 230.

30 August, 1892, to 13 June, 1893.

SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):

Standing Order No. 20: Obs. as to Mr. Lonsdale's speech on address in reply, 56; Mr. Haynes ordered to discontinue his speech, 145; the standing order as to limitation of speeches is mandatory, 198; if it was the wish of the House Mr. Barton might be permitted to continue his speech beyond the prescribed time, 265.

Standing Orders: Obs. in reply to Mr. Garvan, 8369.

Strangers: As to admission of, 963, 965; no right to be introduced into any of the rooms, 4786.

Strike at Broken Hill: The Speaker has more than once intervened to prevent discussion with regard to a case that was sub judice, 438.

Superannuation Fund: As to relevancy of Mr. Rose's remarks on motion of adjournment, 3105, 3107.

Supply: In reference to an amendment on the motion for going into Committee, the intention of the standing order was that a member should be allowed ten minutes within which to explain his reasons, 5578; question, "that Mr. Speaker do now leave the chair," was not open to debate unless the hon. member moved for leave to propose an amendment, 5748.

Tamworth to Barraba Railway: Motion by Mr. Dowel was not out of order, 4205.

Titles of Bills: If satisfied that an order of leave covers a bill generally shall not enforce the strict rule which has hitherto prevailed here, 3581.

Totalisator Legalising Bill: Clause 12 not outside the order of leave, 3887.

Unparliamentary: Not in order to say an hon. member has acted in a disgraceful manner, 38; to apply to an hon. member the expression, "He is a parasite of the worst type," 103; to say an hon. member has made a lying statement, 147; or false statements, 168; that an hon. member went away like a pauper, and was nearly arrested in England for debt, 173; that "it did not take the hon. member long to learn to be a black-leg," 267; that an hon. member is speaking rubbish, 398; that "the Premier should have the unparalleled ignorance," 428; that the Attorney-General had gained the title of "Barton the Lazy," 461; to apply the expression "white-livered individual" to an official, 489; to use the words, "deliberately untrue," 569; to say that a section of the House was pledged to oust the Government because they had been maintaining the law, 633; that an hon. member is a renegade, 639; that an hon. member has played a trick upon the House or upon another hon. member, 690; the expressions, "double shuffling," 691; "Judas Iscariot," 709; "wire-pullers and tricksters," 748; "tricky politicians," 758; "rag-tag and bobtail," 809; "oh, shut up," 1111; a "government barracker" 1199; "coarse and lying statements," 1979; "canting hypocrite," 2810;

ASSEMBLY (continued):

PRESIDENT, THE [HON. JOHN LACKEY], RULINGS OF:

Accommodation for Members in Legislative Assembly: Observations in reference thereto, 6579.

Appropriation Bill: Motion for the third reading was in order, 7800.

Australian Federation: The Hon. R. E. O'Connor had not the right of reply on motion to postpone resolution, 7096.

Bills of Sale Bill of 1892: Motion by the Hon. J. M. Creed that the bill, in substitution of one withdrawn, be printed, and the second reading fixed for a future day, was in order, 1491.

Coal-mines Regulation Bill: The House has no power to give authority to a select committee to sit during the prorogation of Parliament, 6695.

Income-tax Assessment Bill: So closely allied with the Income-tax Bill that the two measures will have to be considered one with the other, 5532.

Income-tax Bill: Members of the other House should be spoken of with respect, 6194; the Hon. J. M. Creed having moved the adjournment of the debate could not afterwards speak on the main question, 6195, 6197.

Municipal Loans Extension Bill: Amendment by the Hon. W. H. Pigott for the recommitment of the bill with instructions to the Committee could not be considered without concurrence, 7710.

Newspaper Quotations: It is quite usual now to allow hon. members to read from newspapers, 4847; the parliamentary books both in England and here concede the right of reading extracts from the newspapers, 5282.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Bill: Motion by the Hon. C. E. Pilcher for an instruction to the Committee should be moved as a substantive motion, 4685; as to order of proceeding in regard to original motion and amendment, 4704, 4706; as to whether the Minister of Justice would speak in reply, or to the amendment on the motion to go into Committee, 5704; could not see his way to prevent the Hon. A. H.

Jacob from referring to a letter in a newspaper considering the wide range allowed in the debate, 5706.

tions moved by the Hon. R. E. O'Connor:—
 (1) That the House reaffirms its opinion in favour of the federation of the Australian colonies, and having regard to the difficulties, as well as the necessity of reconciling conflicting interests, and coming to a common ground of agreement, it approves of the main principles of the proposals for a federal constitution embodied in the draft bill of the National Convention, which met in Sydney in March, 1891, representing, under resolutions, the several parliaments of Australia. (2) That the House is of opinion that the said proposals should be considered in Committee of the Whole, and that such amendments as may be desired by the legislative bodies of this and of the several other Australian colonies should, together with the draft bill, be remitted to the consideration of a second convention, similarly appointed by and reporting to the several parliaments, and that the question of the final adoption by any colony of any proposal for a federal constitution should be submitted to the people thereof in their electoral capacity. (3) That the House will, tomorrow, resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole for the consideration in detail of the said proposals for a federal constitution, 7187, 7201; debated by the Hon. W. H. Pigott (who moved the adjournment of the debate for four weeks), 7200; the Hon. J. Hoskins, 7203; the Hon. A. H. Jacob, 7204 (amendment amended by substituting "fortnight" for "four weeks"); the Hon. PROTECTED MANUFACTURERS' GUARANTEE :

Motion by Mr. Tonkin that it is expedient that powers be given to the Colonial Treasurer to compel the manufacturers of any protected article to deposit in the Treasury a substantial guarantee that they will share the benefit of any increase in prices arising from the tariff equitably with their employees, 1554 ; debated by Sir Henry Parkes, Mr. Carruthers, 1555 ; Mr. Neild, Mr. Edden, 1556 ; motion negatived, 1557.

PUBLIC DEBT : PUBLIC WORKS :

Motion by Mr. Rose affirming that (1) The financing of our public debt of £55,000,000, on the basis of a terminable number of small stocks, maturing at different dates, without a sinking fund providing for redemption, indicates a gross mismanagement of the public finances. (2) The compulsory renewal of expiring loans on terms dictated by London brokers is a source of great danger to our financial interests, and demands immediate efforts to convert our small and varied stocks into two large interminable stocks pledged against the railway and Crown lands revenue of the colony, and carrying the right of redeeming a percentage annually. (3) The colony contains within itself all labour and capital requisite to develop our national resources, which should be developed without saddling the taxpayers with the burden of interest. (4) The public works essential to our progress should be reproductive to the extent of guaranteeing 3 per cent. over working expenses on capital invested. (5) The possible loss arising from the administration of a public work should be provided against by Government having first claim on the revenue of one or more shires or municipalities interested. (6) The currency necessary for assisting in the construction of reproductive works should be provided by Government in the form of notes that shall be accepted as a legal tender, such notes to be redeemed annually to the extent of interest paid by the respective public works; debated by Mr. See, 5652; Mr. O'Sullivan, 5655; Dr. Hollis, 5658; Mr. Gormly, Mr. Houghton (who moved an amendment that all the paragraphs after No. 1 be omitted), 5660; Mr. Willis, Mr. J. CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL:

Council:

Motion by the Hon. A. H. Jacob that the House having ascertained from the Votes and Proceedings of the Legislative Assembly of the 9th May, 1893, that the Probate Act of 1890 Amendment Bill, which was initiated in the Council and transmitted to the Assembly on the 15th March last for concurrence, has been withdrawn from the Assembly because, as this House is aware, of a clause in it enacting "that the Stamp Duties Act Amendment Act of 1886 shall not apply to estates of deceased persons shown not to exceed £200 gross value," and thus questioning the power of the Council to pass such a provision, resolves that the action of the Assembly materially invades the rights and privileges of the Council conferred by the Constitution Act, emphatically protests against the same, and asserts its full constitutional right to pass such and similar bills, 6886; debated by the Hon. R. E. O'Connor, 6894; the Hon. H. C. Dangar, 6896; the Hon. J. Macintosh, 6897; the Hon. J. Davies, the Hon. P. Faucett, 6898; the Hon. R.
