PARLIAMENTARY POWERS AND PRIVILEGES BILL.

Consideration of Legislative Council's Message of 26th March, viz.—

MR. SPEAKER,

The Legislative Council having taken into consideration the Legislative Assembly's Message, dated 5th March, 1879, in reference to the Parliamentary Powers and Privileges Bill,—

Agrees to the Assembly's amendment upon the Council's amendments in clause 2.

Does not insist upon its amendments in clause 3, line 4, which propose the insertion of the word "and" after "that," and the omission of the words "and exercise."

But insists upon its other amendment in that clause, which proposes the insertion after the word "that," in line 9, of the words "no act done or word spoken written or published shall be dealt with as a contempt or breach of privilege by either House unless done spoken or published in the Chamber itself or within the precincts thereof and that"

(1.) Because the Council does not deem it expedient to vest in the Legislature any powers to deal with offences alleged to be in contempt or breach of the privileges of Parliament other than those committed in the Chambers of either House or within the precincts thereof.

(2.) Because no necessity has been shown for the existence of any powers in excess of those which the Council has already sanctioned for securing the orderly and efficient conduct of public business.

(3.) Because the ordinary judicial tribunals of the country are open to any Member of either House of Parliament who may feel himself aggrieved by any act done or word spoken written or published to his injury by any person outside the precincts of Parliament.

Insists upon its amendments which omit clauses 6 and 7,—

(1.) Because the Council does not deem it fair to a person accused of any offence against the privileges of Parliament, and who is afterwards to stand his trial for such offence, to have his case publicly discussed in one of the Chambers of the Legislature, his guilt affirmed, and the Attorney General directed by Resolution to prosecute such person.

(2.) Because the course prescribed would, in the judgment of the Council, seriously interfere with the discretion of the Attorney General, would be an invasion on the part of one Chamber of the Legislature of his constitutional functions, and would tend to impair the usefulness and weaken the independence of that officer.

(3.) Because any such affirmation on the part of Parliament of the guilt of any person charged with any such offence would be calculated to bring the Parliament into collision with the Courts of Law, before which the guilt of such person would have to be established.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 26th March, 1879.*

JOHN HAY,
President.

Sir Henry Parkes moved,—That the Committee insists upon its disagreement from the Council's amendment in clause 3, which proposes to insert the words "No act done or word spoken written or published shall be dealt with as a contempt or breach of privilege by either House unless done spoken or published in the Chamber itself or within the precincts thereof and that"; and also insists upon its disagreements from the Council's amendments omitting clauses 6 and 7.

SMALL DEBTS ACT FURTHER EXTENSION BILL.

Consideration of Legislative Council's Message of 27th March, viz. :—

MR. SPEAKER,

The Legislative Council having taken into consideration the Legislative Assembly's Message, dated 11th March, 1879, in reference to the Small Debts Act further Extension Bill,—

Insists upon its amendment in clause 1,—

(1.) Because the same necessity does not exist in the metropolis for the extension of the jurisdiction of unpaid Justices, inasmuch as stipendiary Magistrates are provided for the performance of the duties to be discharged under the Act.

(2.) Because it may be reasonably supposed that a far larger amount of business in such Courts, involving it may be questions of some legal difficulty, will be brought before the Metropolitan Courts, and it is undesirable to have such cases heard before any other than stipendiary Magistrates.

Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 27th March, 1879.

JOHN HAY,
President.

Mr. O'Connor moved,—That the Committee "does not insist" upon its disagreement from the Council's Amendment in Clause 1.
