Amendment No. 2. Page 12. After clause 11 insert the following new clause and short heading:—

Division 6.—Method of voting at elections of Greater Newcastle Council.

12. The Local Government Act is amended—

Amendment of Act No. 41, 1919,
Sec. 73.

- (a) by inserting at the end of subsection four of section seventy-three, the following proviso:—

Provided that in the case of a contested election of aldermen for the City of Greater Newcastle (including the first election of aldermen for the City of Greater Newcastle to be held pursuant to Part III of the Greater Newcastle Act, 1937) the following provisions shall have effect:—

- (a) The ballot-papers for the election shall be in or to the effect of the form set out in Schedule Five to this Act.

- (b) An elector shall record his vote on a ballot-paper as follows:—He shall vote for not less than the prescribed number of candidates by placing the figure "1" in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes as his first preference and by placing the figures "2," "3," "4" (and so on as the case requires) in the squares respectively opposite the names of so many other candidates as will, with the candidate for whom he votes as his first preference, complete the prescribed number.

cf. Sydney
Corporation
Act, 1932-1934,
s. 35 (4).

The elector may, in addition, indicate the order of his preference for as many more candidates as he pleases by placing in the squares respectively opposite their names other figures next in numerical order after the figures already placed by him on the ballot-paper.

In this paragraph "the prescribed number" means a number equal to twice the number of the candidates to be elected, plus one, or, if there are fewer candidates than that number, the total number of candidates.

City of Greater Newcastle.

Method of Counting Votes at Contested Elections.

Division 1.

Sec. 73 (4).

Where one candidate only is to be elected at an election in any ward the votes shall be counted and the result of the election ascertained by the returning officer, or under his direction and supervision, in accordance with the following provisions:—

- (a) The unrejected ballot-papers shall be arranged under the names of the respective candidates by placing in a separate parcel all those on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate.
- (b) The total number of first preferences given for each candidate on such ballot-paper shall then be counted.
- (c) The candidate who has received the largest number of first preference votes shall, if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes, be elected.
- (d) If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes, a second count shall be made.
- (e) On the second count the candidate who has received the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded, and each unexhausted ballot-paper counted to him shall be counted to the candidate next in the order of the voter's preference.
- (f) If a candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, he shall be declared elected, but if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and counting each of his unexhausted ballot-papers to the continuing candidate next in the order of the voter's preference shall be repeated until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.
- (g) The candidate who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be declared elected.

Division 2.

Where two candidates are to be elected at an election in any ward the votes shall be counted and the result of the election ascertained by the returning officer, or under his direction and supervision, in accordance with the following provisions:—

- (a) One of the candidates shall be elected in accordance with the provisions of Division 1 of this Schedule.

- (b) All the unrejected ballot-papers shall be rearranged under the names of the respective candidates in accordance with the first preference indicated thereon, except that each ballot-paper on which a first preference for the elected candidate is indicated shall be placed in the parcel of the candidate next in the order of the voter's preference.
- (c) The number of ballot-papers in the parcel of each candidate shall then be counted and the total number of votes so counted to each candidate shall be ascertained.
- (d) If a candidate then has an absolute majority of votes he shall be elected, but if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the count shall proceed as provided in paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of Division 1 of this Schedule, until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes:
 Provided that in the application of paragraphs (d) and (e) of Division 1 of this Schedule, any reference to first preference votes shall be read as a reference to all the votes counted to a candidate in pursuance of this Division.
- (e) The candidate who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

Division 3.

Where three candidates are to be elected at an election in any ward two of the candidates shall be elected in accordance with the provisions of Division 1 and Division 2 of this Schedule.

The third candidate shall be elected in the manner provided in Division 2 of this Schedule as regards the election of the second candidate:

Provided that a ballot-paper on which a first preference for any elected candidate is marked shall be placed in the parcel of the continuing candidate next in the order of the voter's preference.

Division 4.

1. In the process of counting under Division 1, or Division 2, or Division 3, as the case may be, of this Schedule, exhausted ballot-papers shall be set aside as finally dealt with and shall thenceforth not be taken into account in the election of a candidate under that particular Division.

2. (a) When a candidate is elected or excluded, each ballot-paper counted to him shall be deemed to be exhausted if there is not indicated upon it a next preference for one continuing candidate.

(b) "Next preference" in paragraph (a) of this rule includes the first of the subsequent preferences marked on the ballot-paper which is not given to an elected or excluded candidate: Provided that where there is a break in the consecutive numbering of preferences marked on a ballot-paper (other than a break necessitating the rejection of the ballot-paper as informal in pursuance of subparagraph (v) of paragraph (d) of the proviso to subsection four of section seventy-three of this Act), only those preferences preceding the break shall be taken into account.

3. (a) If on any count two or more candidates have an equal number of votes and one of them has to be excluded, the returning officer shall determine by lot between them which of them shall be excluded.

(b) If in the final count for the election of a candidate, two candidates have an equal number of votes, the returning officer shall decide by his casting vote which shall be elected; but except as provided in this paragraph he shall not vote at the election.

4. In this Schedule—

"Continuing candidate" means a candidate not already elected or excluded from the count.

"An absolute majority of votes" means a greater number than one-half of the whole number of ballot-papers other than informal and exhausted ballot-papers.
