ECONOMIC STABILITY AND WAR-TIME PROVISIONS CONTINUANCE BILL:—

Clauses 1 to 9 having been dealt with,—

Clause 10. (1) The Governor may, after consultation has taken place between Regulations.
the Premier of the State and the Prime Minister of the Commonwealth, make regulations—

- (a) for or in respect of any matters or class of matters dealt with in any Commonwealth Regulations in operation by virtue of section three of this Act;
- (b) repealing or amending any regulations in operation by virtue of this Part of this Act but so that any such amendment shall be in respect of a matter dealt with by those regulations.

(2) The regulations made under this section may provide for empowering such persons or classes of persons as are prescribed and thereto authorised in pursuance of the regulations, to make orders, rules or other instruments for any of the purposes for which regulations are, by this Part of this Act, authorised to be made.

(3) The regulations made under this section shall—

- (a) be published in the Gazette;
- (b) take effect from the date of publication or from a later date to be specified in the regulations; and
- (c) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after publication if Parliament is then in session, and if not, then within fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.

If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after such regulations have been laid before such House disallowing any regulation or part thereof, such regulation or part shall thereupon cease to have effect.

[Read.]

Question proposed,—That the clause, as read, stand part of the Bill.

Motion made (Lieut.-Colonel Bruxner), That subsection 2 be omitted.

Sec. 2.

(Consequential.)

Clause 2. The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

(a) by inserting next after section two the following new section:—

2A. This Act shall be read and construed subject to the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act and so as not to exceed the legislative power of the State to the intent that where any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid the remainder of this Act and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected.

(b) by omitting from the heading to Division 1 of Part VI the words "Pending declaration" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "Standard Hours."

(c) * * * * *

(ii) The ordinary working hours of the employees or any class of employees in any industry may be reduced below the number of hours specified in this section by agreement or award made by consent.

(f) Where in any industry the ordinary time of work was at the commencement of the Industrial Arbitration (Forty Hours Week) Amendment Act, 1947, fixed by award or agreement or by well-established practice in the industry, such time shall not be exceeded thereafter in respect of such industry.

63A. (1) The terms of each award or agreement in force at the commencement of the Industrial Arbitration (Forty Hours Week) Amendment Act, 1947, shall be deemed to be varied to the extent necessary to give effect to the provisions of section sixty-three of this Act as from such commencement.

63B. The provisions of section 27A of the Fire Brigades Act, 1909, as amended by subsequent Acts, shall not be affected by any of the provisions of section sixty-three or section 63A of this Act.

63C. Any person making a contract or agreement express or implied, and whether verbally or in writing, which provides for the working of hours in excess of those prescribed by or under this Part or who is guilty of a contravention of any of the provisions of this Part shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, recoverable before an industrial magistrate.

* * * * *

(f) by omitting from the matter relating to Part VI in section two the words and symbols "Division 1—Pending Declaration—s. 63" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words and symbols "Division 1—Standard Hours—ss. 63-63c."

Question proposed,—That the clause, as read, stand part of the Bill.

Motion made (Mr. Treatt) to leave out after the word "affected" on line 26, page 2, all words to the end of the clause with a view to inserting the following words in lieu thereof:—

"By inserting next after subsection (10) of section 64 the following new subsections:—

(11) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section, the Commission may determine without public inquiry, and declare standard hours for all industries to which this Act applies by adopting wholly or in part and with any such alteration as the Commission may consider necessary, any judgment, determination or general conclusions of the Commonwealth Court of Conciliation and Arbitration or of a majority of such Court in respect of standard hours of work.

(12) The Commission may, in any industry or in respect of any employees or class of employees in any industry, declare a lesser number of ordinary working hours than the standard hours about to be declared or already declared if the Commission is of the opinion that productive efficiency or output will be maintained in that industry or by those employees or that class of employees, and that such reduction of hours will be in the public interest."

And Mr. Knight having indicated that he proposed to move an amendment after "consent" on line 35, page 2,—

Question put (to test the Committee),—That all words on lines 26, page 2, to 35, page 2, proposed to be left out stand part of the clause.

Committee divided.
