No. 11.

ANNUAL HOLIDAYS (AMENDMENT) BILL—

Clause 1 having been dealt with—

1 Clause 2. The Principal Act is amended—

Amendment
of Act No.
31, 1944.

- 5 (a) by omitting from paragraph (a1) of subsection two of section Sec. 2. two the words “in respect of which the right to the annual (Interpretation.) holiday, or payment under section four of this Act, as the case may be, accrues” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “of twelve months immediately preceding the annual holiday or, as the case may be, during the period of employment in respect of which a right to payment under subsection three of section four “or under section 4A” of this Act accrues”;
- 10 (b) by omitting from paragraph (a2) of the same subsection the words “in respect of which the right to the annual holiday, or payment under section four of this Act, as the case may be, accrues,” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “of twelve months immediately preceding the annual holiday or, as the case may be, during the period of employment in respect of which a right to payment under subsection three of section four or under section 4A of this Act accrues”;
- 15 (c) by omitting from paragraph (b) of the same subsection the words “the period in respect of which the right to the annual holiday accrues” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “the applicable period referred to in paragraph (a1) of this subsection”;

1 (d) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsections:—

5 (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraph (a1) of subsection two of this section, for the purposes of the definition of the term "ordinary pay" in subsection one of this section, where a worker is remunerated partly in relation to an ordinary time rate of pay fixed by the terms of his employment and based on age or years of service and partly in relation to a bonus, incentive or other similar scheme, the 10 worker's ordinary pay shall be deemed to be the sum of—

(a) the worker's weekly remuneration at the ordinary time rate of pay so fixed for his age or years of service at the commencement of the annual holiday or, as the case may be, at the end of the period of employment in 15 respect of which a right to payment under subsection three of section four or section 4A of this Act, accrues;

30 (4) For the purposes of paragraphs (a1) and (b) of subsection two and of subsection three of this section, in computing the period actually worked by a worker no regard shall be had to any period during which, on account of illness or injury, the worker was temporarily assigned to duties or work entitling him to payment of wages lower than the wages 35 he would have received had he not been assigned to those duties or that work on that account, unless the worker was assigned to those duties or that work during the whole of the period actually worked by him.

[Read]

Question proposed—That the clause, as read, stand part of the Bill.

Motion made (Mr Renshaw) to leave out on line 9 the word "two" with a view of inserting the word "three" in lieu thereof.

Point of Order:—Mr Askin submitted that the amendment would mean an increased commitment to the Crown above that contemplated, and was therefore out of Order.

The Chairman upheld the Point of Order.

Thereupon, motion made (Mr Renshaw) That the Chairman leave the Chair to report a Point of Order, and ask leave to sit again, so soon as the Point of Order has been decided by the House.

Question put.
