That amendment providing for compensation in the Liquor Traffic Local Option Bill (No. 2) was covered by the Message, 48.
That amendment, on amendment, to include duty on imported timber, to levy specific duties, to abolish ad valorem duties, and to levy poll-tax on coloured races, was relevant to the motion in reference to Protective Policy, and that the said amendment did not anticipate motion already on the Notice Paper, 60.
That amendment on motion to rescind Resolutions in reference to Australasian Naval Defences was identical with one of the resolutions sought to be rescinded; and was virtually the same question twice offered, and therefore out of Order, 66.
Referring to ruling of Mr. Speaker Abbott on 18th April, 1893, in reference to appointment of Chairman of Committees, he would not, as Deputy Speaker, alter the invariable practice of the House since the year 1856, 69.
That Children's Protection Act Amendment Bill was beyond the Order of Leave, 77.
That Public Works Act Amendment Bill increased expenditure, and should be covered by a Message from the Governor, 77.
That Reduction of Cost of Litigation Bill did not affect trade and was not beyond the Order of Leave, 77.
That Right of Property in Telegraphic Messages Bill did not relate to trade, and need not, therefore, be introduced in Committee, 77.
That House had been properly constituted, and that the Deputy Speaker was legally placed in the Chair, notwithstanding that the Chair had been taken after the time appointed by the Sessional Order, 89.
