At request of Chairman of Committees, gave his opinion that Temporary Chairman of Committees should relinquish the Chair when Chairman desired to resume it; also that, in the absence of Chairman, one Temporary Chairman could request another to act in his place; but if the Chairman was within the building he should relieve the Temporary Chairman, and then request another of the panel to act, 115.

That no Member may allude to any Debate in the Legislative Council, 176.
That, referring to the ruling of 4 April, he had consulted later authorities, and found that the rule was not strictly enforced, and that he would not attempt to stop references to Debates in the Council except to those of the current Session, but he would endeavour to prevent recrimination or bad feeling, 186.
That clause 3 of the Immigration Restriction Bill was outside Order of Leave, 202.

That motion proposed to be moved by Sir George Dibbs to give precedence to certain Notices of Motions and Orders of the Day of general business, was in contravention of a Sessional Order, and could not be moved without first suspending that Order, 323.
