WEEKLY REPORT OF DIVISIONS
IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE
(EXTRACTED FROM THE MINUTES)

THURSDAY, 22 NOVEMBER, 1962

No 1.

WAYS AND MEANS [GAMING AND BETTING (POKER MACHINES) TAXATION
AMENDMENT BILL]:—

Question proposed,—

- 1 (14.) (A) That towards raising the supply to be granted to Her Majesty, there shall be charged, levied, collected and paid, subject to the provisions of Part IIIA of the Gaming and Betting Act, 1912-5 1962, and to any concessions, reductions and exemptions herein provided for, for the use of Her Majesty and for credit of the Gaming and Betting (Poker Machines) Account in the Special Deposits Account established at the Treasury a supplementary license tax, in respect of the taxing period ending the 10 thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three and each subsequent taxing period, at the rate of two shillings and sixpence in the pound on the net revenue from poker machines kept, used or operated by any club pursuant to any license or renewal of any license issued under the said Part IIIA.
- 15 (B) That in this Resolution—“aggregate net revenue from poker machines” in relation to any period of twelve months ending the thirtieth day of November means the sum of the gross revenue from poker machines in respect of the taxing periods ending 20 the thirty-first day of May and the thirtieth day of November in such period of twelve months reduced by the deductions under paragraphs (a) and (b) of the definition of “net revenue from poker machines” which a club is entitled to make in respect of such taxing periods ; 25 “gross revenue from poker machines” in relation to any taxing period means the total amount of money inserted in poker machines of a club by persons using or operating such machines for the purpose of gaming during that period less the amounts released directly by such 30 machines as prize money during that period ;

1 "net revenue from poker machines" in relation to any taxing period means the gross revenue from poker machines derived during that period from poker machines of a club less:—

5 (a) the value of prizes paid or given during that period by the club to persons using or operating such machines for the purpose of gaming additional to the amounts released directly by such machines as prize money during that period; and 10 (b) (i) in respect of the taxing period ending the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three, half the license tax paid by the club pursuant to sections two and 15 2A of the Gaming and Betting (Poker Machines) Taxation Act, 1956-1962, in respect of the year commencing the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two, on any poker machines kept, used or 20 operated at any time between the first day of July and the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two, and the whole of the license tax paid pursuant to such sections and section four of the said 25 Act on or before the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three, in respect of any poker machines kept, used or operated for the first time after the said thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine 30 hundred and sixty-two, and on or before the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three; and

(ii) in respect of any subsequent taxing period the license tax paid during that period;

35 "taxing period" means the period of six months ending the thirty-first day of May or the thirtieth day of November, as the case may be, in any year in respect of which supplementary license tax is payable.

40 (C) That no license tax shall be an allowable deduction as referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of "net revenue from poker machines" in paragraph (B) of this Resolution unless such license tax has been paid on or before the due date of payment.

(D) That—

45 (a) Where in respect of any period of twelve months ending
 the thirtieth day of November the aggregate net revenue from poker machines derived by a club during such period from the keeping, use or operation of poker-machines by the club is five thousand pounds or less, 50 supplementary license tax shall not be payable by the club in respect of the taxing period ending the thirtieth day of November, or be deemed to have been payable by the club in respect of the taxing period ended the thirty-first day of May immediately preceding and any 55 supplementary license tax paid by the club in respect of such preceding taxing period ended the thirty-first day of May shall be refunded to the club.

60 (b) Where in respect of any period of twelve months ending
 the thirtieth day of November the aggregate net revenue
 from poker machines derived by a club during such
 period from the keeping, use or operation of poker machines by the club—

(i) is more than five thousand pounds but less than ten thousand pounds, or

1 (ii) is ten thousand pounds or more and the club has been relieved of its obligation to pay the whole or any part of the supplementary license tax 5 in respect of the taxing period ended the thirty-first day of May within such period of twelve months,

the supplementary license tax payable by the club in respect of the taxing period ending the thirtieth day of November in that year shall be an amount equivalent to the difference between—10 (iii) the supplementary license tax calculated at the rate prescribed by paragraph (A) of this Resolution upon the taxable aggregate net revenue from poker machines derived by the club during the 15 said period of twelve months ending the thirtieth day of November ; and

(iv) any supplementary license tax paid in respect of the taxing period ended the thirty-first day of May within such period of twelve months.

20 In this paragraph "taxable aggregate net revenue" means the aggregate net revenue after deducting therefrom the sum of five thousand pounds reduced by one pound for every one pound, up to five thousand pounds, by which such aggregate net revenue exceeds five thousand pounds.

25 Where the supplementary license tax paid by a club in respect of the taxing period ended the said thirty-first day of May exceeds the supplementary license tax payable by the club in respect of the taxing period ended 30 the thirtieth day of November in pursuance of this paragraph, the excess shall be refunded to the club.

Motion made (Mr. Chaffey) to insert after (B) (b) (ii), after line 33, page

And clause 3 having been dealt with,—

On motion of Mr. McMahon, the Chairman left the Chair to report the Bill without amendment.

I. P. K. VIDLER,
Clerk-Assistant.

1 (iii) in the case of a worker who has completed with an 5 employer at least five years service as an adult, and whose services are terminated by the employer for any reason or by the worker on account of illness, 10 incapacity or domestic or other pressing necessity, or by reason of the death of the worker, be a proportionate amount on the basis of three months for fifteen years service (such service to include service with the employer as an adult and otherwise than as an adult).

(a1) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of this subsection
 "service as an adult"—

15 (i) in the case of a worker employed to do any work for which the price, rate or wage has been fixed by an award made under the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904, as amended by sub-20 sequent Acts, or made under the Industrial Arbitration Act, or has been fixed by an industrial agreement made pursuant to or registered under the said Acts—means the period of service with an employer during which the remuneration applicable to the worker was at a rate not less than the lowest 25 rate fixed under the award or industrial agreement for an adult male or adult female in the same trade, classification or calling as the worker ;

(ii) in the case of a worker being an apprentice the terms of whose employment are governed by an award applicable only to apprentices—means the period of 30 service with an employer during which the remuneration applicable to the worker was at a rate not less than the rate prescribed by the award covering a journeyman carrying out work in the same trade,
 classification or calling as the worker ;

35 (iii) in the case of a worker employed to do any work for which no price, rate or wage has been fixed by any award or industrial agreement referred to in sub-paragraph (i) of this paragraph—means the period of service with the employer during which the worker was not less than twenty-one years of age.

SAME BILL:—

Same clause:—

Question again proposed,—That the clause, as read, stand part of the Bill.

Motion made (Mr. Hughes) to leave out all words on line 20 (page 5), to line 17 (page 6), with a view of inserting the following words in lieu thereof:—

"27A. (1) There shall be a committee of inquiry which shall be called "The Statutory Committee of The New South Wales Branch of the Australian Medical Association" (in this section called "the Committee") for the purpose of hearing charges of professional misconduct upon the part of registered persons whether or not they are members of The New South Wales Branch of the Australian Medical Association.

(2) The committee shall consist of the chairman as herein-after mentioned and four members of The New South Wales Branch of the Australian Medical Association appointed by the Council of such Association.

(3) The chairman of the committee shall be a magistrate or barrister-at-law who shall be appointed as such by the Minister.

(4) A quorum of the committee shall consist of three members thereof including the chairman.

(5) The committee shall investigate all complaints made to The New South Wales Branch of the Australian Medical Association in respect of registered persons. For the purpose of any investigation conducted by it the committee may administer an oath and by notice in writing signed by the chairman require any person to attend at any place and at the time specified in the notice for the purpose of giving evidence before the committee or producing any document relating to the investigation. Any such notice may be served by delivering it personally to the person to whom it is addressed or by leaving it for him with some person apparently over the age of fourteen years at his address last known to the committee. If any person on whom any such notice is served as aforesaid refuses or fails to comply with the requirements thereof, such person shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

(6) The committee

- (a) may dismiss any complaint or charge made to it;
- (b) if it is satisfied of the truth of the complaint or charge but does not consider that the complaint or charge is sufficiently serious to warrant its being referred to the disciplinary tribunal constituted under section twenty-eight of this Act, after giving the registered person against whom the complaint or charge was made an opportunity to appear before it and to make written representations to it, may caution or reprimand such registered person; or
- (c) if it is satisfied that a prima facie case has been made out and considers that the complaint or charge is sufficiently serious to warrant its being referred to the disciplinary tribunal so constituted, shall prefer such complaint or charge accordingly."

Question put,—That the words proposed to be left out stand.

1 (2B) A friendly society shall not exercise the powers and authorities conferred on it by subsection (2A) of this section unless it satisfies the Minister administering the Pharmacy Act, 1963,—

5 (a) that the net profits derived from the carrying on of the business of a pharmacist by it pursuant to that subsection will be applied solely to the provision of benefits to the members of such society other than the payment 10 of moneys to such members by way of dividends or shares; and

(b) that the establishment of any such business pursuant to that subsection is warranted in the interests of the members of the friendly society or the public or of both the members of the friendly society and the public,

15 and that Minister has approved in writing of the friendly society carrying on such business.

(2) The Friendly Societies Dispensaries Enabling Act, 1945, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Friendly Societies Dispensaries Enabling Act, 1945-1963.

1 Clause 39. (1) The Treasurer shall, in respect of the year ending on the thirty-first day of December in the year following the year in which this Part commences, and in each ensuing year ending on the thirty-first day of December, pay out of moneys provided by Parliament as a contribution to the General Fund “an amount equivalent to one-quarter of the total contributions payable by the councils to the General Fund in that year or an amount of one hundred thousand pounds, whichever amount is the lesser.” Contribution by the Treasurer.

10 (2) In respect of the year ending on the thirty-first day of December in the year in which this Part commences the Treasurer shall pay out of moneys provided by Parliament as a contribution to the General Fund such amount, not exceeding one hundred thousand pounds, as he thinks fit.

[Read.]

Question proposed,—That the clause, as read, stand part of the Bill.

Motion made (Mr. Willis), lines 5 to 8, leave out the words “an amount equivalent to one-quarter of the total contributions payable by the councils to the General Fund in that year or an amount of one hundred thousand pounds, whichever amount is the lesser” with a view of inserting—“an amount equivalent to the total contributions payable by the councils to the General Fund that year of an amount of two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, whichever amount is the lesser.”

LONG SERVICE LEAVE (METALLIFEROUS MINING INDUSTRY) BILL:—

Clauses 1 and 2 having been dealt with,—

Interpretation.

1 Clause 3. (1) In this Act, unless the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires,—

* * * * *

5 "Metalliferous mine" means any place, open cut, shaft, tunnel, drive, level or other excavation, drift, gutter, lead, vein, lode or reef wherein or whereby any operation is carried on for or in connection with the purpose of obtaining any mineral substance by any mode or method, and any place adjoining thereto on which any product of the metalliferous mine, as hereinbefore defined, is stacked, stored, crushed or otherwise treated and includes—

10

(a) any quarry;

- 1 (b) any place where two or more men are employed in con-5 nection with prospecting operations for the purposes of the discovery or exploration of or for any mineral substance whether by drilling, boring or any other method; and
- 10 (c) so much of the surface of any place and the buildings, workshops, changehouses, structures and works thereon surrounding or adjacent to the shaft, outlets or site of a metalliferous mine, as hereinbefore defined, as are occupied, together with the mine, for the purposes of or in connection with the working of the mine, or the removal from the mine of refuse, or the health, safety or welfare of persons employed in, at or about the mine.

No. 1.

TOTALIZATOR (OFF-COURSE BETTING) BILL:—

Clauses 1 to 9 having been dealt with,—

Clause 10.

- 1 10. For the purposes of this Act the Board may establish offices, branches and agencies and for that purpose the Board may purchase or take on lease or license any lands, buildings or premises and may erect buildings and may equip, fit and furnish any buildings or premises and may enter into any agency contracts or other contracts or arrangements whatsoever and may carry the same into effect.

10 The Board shall in determining whether or not to establish any office, branch or agency under this section have regard to the proximity of the proposed office, branch or agency to places of public worship, schools and educational establishments, and such other matters as it considers relevant.

[Read]

Motion (Mr. Darby) to insert in line 1 after "establish" the words "after having obtained approval as to site from the local government authority concerned".

Question put,—That the words proposed to be inserted be so inserted.

Mr. Wattison, Temporary Chairman, stated his opinion that the Noes had it.

Whcreupon Division called for.

And there being only one member who had challenged his decision, Mr. Wattison, in accordance with Standing Order No. 280 (c) declared the determination of the Committee to be in the negative.

Clause, as read, again proposed.

Amendment (Mr. Cox) to leave out all words on lines 7 to 11 with a view of inserting:—"The Board shall not establish any office, branch or agency under this section in the immediate vicinity of places of public worship, schools or other educational establishments or premises licensed under the Liquor Act, 1912, as amended, other than restaurants."

Amendment (Mr. Darby) to leave out all words on lines 7 to 11 with a view of inserting:—"The Board shall not establish any office, branch or agency under this section in proximity to a place of public worship, a school, an educational establishment, premises licensed for the sale of liquor, and other places that may be proclaimed by the Governor in the Gazette."

Amendment (Mr. Renshaw) to insert in line 10 (page 1) after "establishments" the words "and premises licensed under the Liquor Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts".

The Temporary Chairman stated that in order to preserve the rights of Mr. Renshaw he would first test the Committee on the amendments of Mr. Cox and Mr. Darby by proposing that the words:—"The Board shall in determining whether or not to establish any office, branch or agency under this section have regard to the proximity of the proposed office, branch or agency to places of public worship, schools and educational establishments," on lines 7 to 10 proposed to be left out stand.

DENTISTS (AMENDMENT) BILL:—

Clauses 1 to 3 having been dealt with,—

1 Clause 4. The Dentists Act, 1934-1957, is further amended—

Further amendment
of Act No.
10, 1934.

(a) by inserting next after paragraph (b) of subsection three of section twelve the following new paragraphs:—

Sec. 12.
(Penalty for practice of dentistry by unregistered person.)

5 (b1) the doing or performing by nurses attached to the Division of Dental Services of the Department of Public Health of such part of the practice of dentistry as may be prescribed, whilst carrying out under the supervision of registered dentists dental treatment provided by such Division to school children; or 10 (b2) the practice of dentistry by a person licensed under this Act to the extent to which he is entitled to practise dentistry in terms of such license.

* * * * *

[Read.]

Question proposed,—That the clause, as read, stand part of the Bill.

Amendment (Mr. Jago) lines 2 to 12 leave out all words on these lines.Amendment (Mr. Hughes) lines 2 to 12 leave out all words on these lines with a view of inserting:—

(b1) the doing or performing by dental hygienists under the personal and immediate supervision of registered dentists the following duties:—

(i) examining patients and charting dental conditions;

(ii) cleaning and polishing teeth;

(iii) performing prophylaxis;

(iv) carrying out regular routine examinations of children and referring them to a dentist for treatment;

- (v) the removal of tartar, deposits, accretions and stains from those parts of the surfaces of teeth which are exposed or which are directly beneath the free margins of the gums including the application of medicaments appropriate thereto ; and
 - (vi) give special attention to teaching the principles of oral hygiene and the prevention of dental disease not only to children but to school classes, teachers, women's organisations, parent-teacher associations and similar bodies ;
- (b2) that dental hygienists shall carry out a course to equip them for this work and shall be registered to practise as such after registration by the Board ;

(Interpretation.)
- 5 (ii) by omitting from paragraph (c) of the same definition the word "or" where secondly occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "is shown in such certificate or on such records or where no such";
- (b) by inserting next after section four the following new section:—
- New sec. 4A.
- 10 4A. Notwithstanding the provisions of section four of this Act, the Governor may, on the recommendation of the Commissioner, apply, by proclamation published in the Gazette, the provisions of this Act to any vehicle the load capacity of which is not more than four tons, where the Commissioner certifies that such vehicle (together with any trailer for the time being attached thereto) is, in his opinion, being used regularly for the carriage of a loading in excess of four tons. Application of Act to certain vehicles otherwise exempt.
- 15 Upon the publication of any such proclamation, the provisions of this Act (section four excepted) shall apply with respect to any vehicle specified therein and to the owner thereof.
- 20 The Governor may, from time to time, alter, revoke or vary any such proclamation.
- (c) by omitting subsection two of section ten and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—
- Sec. 10.
(Offences.)
- 25 (2) Every person who is guilty of an offence against this Act shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred pounds.

ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES.

28. (a) A Member shall, ~~by Resolution upon~~ upon Motion without Notice, be elected Chairman of Committees of the Whole House, and when so elected shall continue to act as such Chairman during the continuance of the Assembly, unless the House shall otherwise direct.

(b) For the purpose of the election of a Chairman of Committees a Member shall propose some other Member, as Chairman of Committees, and move, "That Mr. be Chairman of Committees of the Whole House", which motion must be seconded. Further nominations may be proposed in like manner.

No Member shall speak to any such motion for more than ten minutes.

The Speaker shall, in the order in which the Members have been proposed, put the Question, "That Mr. _____ be Chairman of Committees of the Whole House"; and if resolved in the affirmative the Member shall be declared elected; but, if in the negative, the Question shall then be put, by the Speaker, "That (the Member next proposed) be Chairman of Committees of the Whole House", and so on until a majority has been recorded in favour of one of the candidates.

(c) At any time during the proceedings relating to the election of Chairman of Committees, whether any Member is addressing the House or not, the Premier or a Minister may move, without notice or debate, "That the Question be now put".

Before putting the Question "That the Question be now put," the Speaker shall ask, "Is there any further proposal for the office of Chairman of Committees?" and the Speaker shall receive any nomination or nominations then made, no debate being allowed.

The Speaker shall then put the Question, without debate, "That the Question be now put".

The carrying of the Question "That the Question be now put" shall be deemed to be an instruction to the Speaker to put forthwith, and without further debate, the necessary Questions in relation to the candidates.

~~(b)~~(d) When a vacancy occurs in the office of Chairman, a new Chairman shall be elected in like manner.

NOMINATION OF TEMPORARY CHAIRMEN.

28 ~~(e)~~28A. Mr. Speaker shall nominate, at the commencement of every Session, a panel of not more than five Members to act as Temporary Chairmen of Committees when requested by, or in the absence of, the Chairman of Committees, and any Temporary Chairman, while acting under this Standing Order, shall have all the powers of the Chairman of Committees of the Whole House: Provided that he shall immediately vacate the Chair on the return and at the request of the Chairman of Committees.

ELECTION OF ACTING CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES.

28B. Whenever the Speaker is unavoidably absent and the Chairman of Committees is performing the duties of the Speaker in accordance with section 31A of the Constitution Act, 1902, as amended, or in the unavoidable absence for a period of the Chairman of Committees, the House may proceed, upon motion without notice, to the election of an Acting Chairman of Committees who shall exercise all the authorities, duties and functions of the Chairman.

For the purpose of the election of an Acting Chairman of Committees the procedure provided for the election of a Chairman of Committees shall be adopted.

CHAPTER IV.—OPENING OF A SESSION OF PARLIAMENT.

* * * * *

FORMAL BUSINESS ONLY BEFORE ADOPTION OF ADDRESS.

39. Except as provided in ~~Standing Order 29A~~ Standing Orders Nos. 28, 29A, 49, 113A, 161 and 395, no business beyond ~~what~~ that which is of a formal character shall be entered upon before the Address in Reply to the Governor's Opening Speech has been adopted.

CHAPTER V.—SITTING AND ADJOURNMENT OF THE HOUSE.

* * * * *

ABSENCE OF QUORUM.

44. If, at any time after the commencement of the Business of the Day, notice be taken by any Member, or the Chairman of a Committee of the Whole reports (whether upon Division or otherwise) that there is not a Quorum of Members present, ~~the Serjeant-at-Arms~~, by direction of the Speaker ~~shall ring the Division Bell~~, the Division Bell shall be rung, and one of the Clerks Assistant at the Table shall simultaneously turn a Minute-glass; and at the expiration of two minutes by the glass, the Speaker shall count the House and, if there be not a Quorum present (being at least twenty Members exclusive of the Speaker), shall adjourn the House to the next day of meeting: Provided that if, on any Division in the House, it appear by the Lists handed in by the Tellers that there is not a Quorum present, the Speaker shall adjourn the House at once, without the Bell being rung or the Minute-glass turned.

CHAPTER VII.—ACCOUNTS AND PAPERS.

* * * * *

PAPERS LAID UPON THE TABLE. ~~ARE PUBLIC.~~

57. All Papers and Documents laid upon the Table of the House ~~shall be considered public~~ and may be ordered to be printed without notice and without debate. Any such Papers or Documents ordered to be printed shall be considered public.

Papers not ordered to be printed may be inspected at the offices of the House at any time by Members, and, unless otherwise ordered by the Speaker, by other persons, and copies thereof or extracts therefrom may be made.

Should Mr. Speaker present any document he may, at once, put the Question: "That the Document be printed"; no debate being allowed.

DISTRIBUTION OF PAPERS.

58. (a) The Clerk shall distribute to each Member of the Assembly, if so requested by him, a copy of each paper printed by Order of the Assembly, and shall transmit to the Clerk of the Council a sufficient number of copies of all such Papers for distribution to the Members of the Council.

(b) The Clerk shall cause to be printed and brought up to date weekly a list of the regulations, rules, ordinances, by-laws, proclamations, and instruments showing the date upon which each was laid upon the Table, together with the date of the last day (in the normal course of sitting days) upon which Notice of Motion for Disallowance may be given.

CHAPTER VIII.—STRANGERS.

* * * * *

ACCOMMODATION FOR REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PRESS.

62A. The representatives of registered newspapers shall have admission to the Press Gallery during the sittings of the House. The Speaker shall have control of the gallery and rooms adjacent thereto set apart for the use of the representatives of the Press, and shall provide for the accommodation in such gallery and rooms of a representative or representatives of such newspapers as he deems fit; but the House may, from time to time, direct by resolution that a representative or representatives of any newspaper shall be admitted to or excluded from the accommodation of such gallery and rooms: Provided that Mr. Speaker shall be entitled to put the Question when debate on any such resolution shall have exceeded thirty minutes, and that no Member or the Mover in Reply shall, without concurrence, speak to such resolution for more than ten minutes.

In this Standing Order "registered newspapers" shall be deemed to include licensed radio and television broadcasting stations which conduct independent news services.

The privilege conferred upon representatives referred to in this Standing Order shall not, unless with the permission of the Speaker, confer the right upon such representatives to use cameras, microphones, tape recorders, or other mechanical recording device within the Chamber or the precincts of the House.

CHAPTER IX.—ATTENDANCE AND PLACES OF MEMBERS.

* * * * *

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

65. Leave of absence, not exceeding the remainder of the then Session, may be given, upon Motion without Notice, by the House to any Member, for any sufficient cause, to be stated to the House.

NOTICE OF MOTION FOR LEAVE.

66. Notice shall be given of a Motion for giving leave of absence to any Member, stating the cause and period of absence.

NO MEMBER TO PASS BETWEEN CHAIR AND TABLE OR BETWEEN THE CHAIR AND THE MEMBER ADDRESSING THE CHAIR.

72. No Member shall pass between the Chair and the Table, or between the Chair and the Member addressing the Chair.

CHAPTER X.—ROUTINE OF BUSINESS.

ROUTINE OF BUSINESS.

74. The House shall proceed each day with its ordinary business in the following routine : 1. Presentation of Petitions. 2. Notices of Motions and Questions. 3. Formal Business. 4. Placing or Disposal of Business. 5. Motions and Orders of the Day, or vice versa, as set down on the Notice Paper. 3. Placing or Disposal of Business. 4. Formal Business. 5. Motions under Standing Order No. 49. 6. Motions and Orders of the Day, or vice versa, as set down on the Notice Paper or as provided by Sessional Orders.

PRESENTATION OF MESSAGES, PAPERS, AND RETURNS.

75. Messages between the Legislative Council and Assembly, Papers and Returns may be presented at any time when other business is not before the House. Debate on the motion for the adjournment of the House may be interrupted in order to present such Messages, Papers and Returns.

CHAPTER XI.—QUESTIONS SEEKING INFORMATION FROM THE GOVERNMENT.

* * * * *

QUESTIONS WITHOUT NOTICE.

79. Questions asked without notice may be read and are subject to the same rules as Questions upon notice, but neither the Question nor reply shall be recorded in the Votes and Proceedings : Provided that no Question shall be asked after the lapse of forty-five minutes from Mr. Speaker calling on Notices of Motions and Questions. Provided further that no supplementary questions may be asked.

CHAPTER XIII.—NOTICES OF MOTIONS.

* * * * *

ARGUMENT OR UNBECOMING EXPRESSIONS ~~EXPUNGED~~.

106. If a Notice contains argument or unbecoming expressions the Speaker may order that it shall not be printed, or it may be expunged from the Notice Paper, by order of the House.

GIVING MORE THAN ONE NOTICE.

107. No Member (except a Minister) may give two Notices of Motions more than one Notice of Motion consecutively, except Notices of Motions under Standing Order No. 113A.

CHAPTER XIV.—MOTIONS.

NOT TO BE MADE WITHOUT PREVIOUS NOTICE.—EXCEPTIONS.

110. No Member shall make any Motion, initiating a subject for discussion, but in pursuance of Notice openly given at a previous sitting of the House and duly entered on the Notice Paper, or by leave of the House; but it shall always be in order on the presentation of any document, except a Petition, for the Member presenting it to move, without previous Notice, that it be printed, and that a day be appointed for its consideration.

~~Should Mr. Speaker present any document, he may, at once, put the question that it be printed.~~

It shall also be in order at any time to move, without previous notice, that any resolution of the House be communicated by Message to the Council.

DISALLOWANCE OF REGULATIONS, RULES, ORDINANCES, BY-LAWS, PROCLAMATIONS, OR INSTRUMENTS.

113A. (a) Notice of a Motion to disallow or to amend, in accordance with statutory provisions, any regulation, rule, ordinance, by-law, proclamation, or instrument to which objection may be taken within a time specified shall, when given, be forthwith set down to be considered upon the next sitting day.

(b) Such motions—

- (i) shall have priority on such day in the order in which notice was given ;
- (ii) shall, except as provided in Standing Order No. 108, Standing Orders Nos. 108 and 161, take precedence over all other business on such day ;
- (iii) if not moved on that day shall lapse.

(c) Mr. Speaker shall be entitled to put the Question when debate on any such motion shall have exceeded ~~thirty~~ sixty minutes, and no Member or the Mover in Reply shall, without concurrence, speak to such motion for more than ten minutes.

CHAPTER XVI.—BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE AND FORMAL BUSINESS.

BUSINESS PAPER.

122. A Business Paper containing Notices of ~~Questions and~~ Motions and Orders of the Day and a Questions and Answers Paper shall be printed and circulated with the Votes and Proceedings.

INTERRUPTION OF BUSINESS.

123A. Whenever it is appointed that General Business shall take precedence of Government Business on any meeting day, and that after a specified hour Government Business shall take precedence of General Business, the Business under discussion shall be interrupted at the hour so specified.

- (a) If the interruption be in the House, the Debate shall stand adjourned and the Speaker shall call upon the Member in charge of the Business to name the date for the resumption of the Debate and the Member speaking shall have pre-audience upon such resumption.
- (b) If the interruption be in Committee the Chairman shall leave the Chair, report progress, and ask leave to sit again on a day fixed by the Member in charge of the Business under consideration.

At the moment of interruption, Motions for the Adjournment of the House or the Debate, or in Committee that the Chairman leave the Chair, or report progress, shall lapse without question put.

Provided that if at the moment of interruption a division be in progress such division shall be completed and the result announced.

The provisions of this Standing Order shall not apply to motions under Standing Order No. 49.

MINISTERS MAY ARRANGE GOVERNMENT BUSINESS ON GOVERNMENT DAYS.

125. The right is reserved to Ministers to ~~place~~ take any Notices of Motions or Orders of the Day relating to Government Business upon the Business Paper in the rotation in which they desire them to be taken on any days on which Government Business has precedence.

CHAPTER XVIII.—RULES OF DEBATE.

* * * * *

INDULGENCE TO MEMBER UNABLE TO STAND.

136. By the special indulgence of the ~~House~~ Speaker, a Member unable conveniently to stand, by reason of sickness or infirmity, will be permitted to speak sitting and uncovered.

EXPLANATION.

139. A Member who has spoken to a Question may again be briefly heard, to explain himself in regard to some material part of his speech, but shall not introduce any new matter, or interrupt any Member in possession of the Chair.

TIME LIMIT OF SPEECHES.

142A. Except where a time limit is otherwise provided in these Standing Orders—

In the House,—No Member shall speak for more than forty-five minutes at a time on any question in the House ~~except in the Debate on the Address in Reply, or on a Motion of Censure or "No confidence,"~~ on which occasions a Member shall not speak for more than one hour: Provided that with the consent of a majority of the House on a Motion to be moved and determined at once without amendment or debate, a Member may be allowed to continue his speech for a further period or periods, each period not to exceed twenty minutes.

In Committee of the Whole,—In Committee of the Whole House, except as hereinafter provided, no Member, other than the Member in charge of a Bill or Motion, shall speak more than three times on any one question, nor more than twenty minutes on any one occasion and ten minutes on any other occasion.

In Committee of Supply and Ways and Means,—In Committee of Supply ~~or Ways and Means~~, except as hereinafter provided, no Member, other than the Minister in charge of a Resolution, or Estimates, shall speak more than three times on any one Question, nor more than ~~forty-five~~ thirty minutes on any one occasion and ten minutes on any other occasion: Provided that when the Estimates are taken in globo, except as hereinafter provided, no Member other than the Minister in charge of the Resolutions or Estimates, shall speak more than three times on the Question, nor more than sixty minutes on the first occasion and ten minutes on any other occasion.

In Committee of Ways and Means,—In Committee of Ways and Means, except as hereinafter provided, no Member, other than the Minister in charge of a Resolution, shall speak more than three times on any one Question, nor more than forty-five minutes on any one occasion and ten minutes on any other occasion.

This Standing Order shall not apply to the Leader of the Government, a Minister in charge of a Bill or Motion then before the House, or to the Leader of the Opposition, or to the Leader of any Party in the House ordinarily recognised by the Speaker, or any Member deputed by them respectively to act on their behalf.

SPEECHES OF SAME SESSION.

144. No Member shall read the report of any speech made in Parliament during the same Session.

No Member may allude to or quote from any debate or proceedings of the same session unless such allusion or quotation be brief and relevant to the matter under discussion.

~~USE OF THE KING'S OR GOVERNOR'S NAME.~~

USE OF THE SOVEREIGN'S OR GOVERNOR'S NAME.

148. No Member shall use ~~His Majesty's~~ the name of The Sovereign or the ~~Governor's name~~ Governor irreverently in debate, or for the purpose of influencing the House in its deliberations.

OFFENSIVE WORDS, IMPUTATIONS AND REFLECTIONS AGAINST ANY MEMBER.

151. No Member shall use offensive or unbecoming words in reference to any Member of either House of Parliament or make imputations of improper motives or personal reflections on Members.

~~DIGRESSIONS. IMPUTATIONS, AND REFLECTIONS.~~

152. No Member shall digress from the subject-matter of any Question under discussion, and all imputations of improper motives, and all personal reflections on Members, shall be deemed disorderly.

~~SPEAKING TO PRIVILEGE. OR "TO ORDER."~~

158. A Member may rise to speak upon a matter of Privilege suddenly arising, or "to Order" subject to Rule 160.

When rising to speak upon a matter of Privilege under this Standing Order, a Member shall, before submitting a substantive motion, establish to the satisfaction of the Speaker, in a statement limited to five minutes, a prima facie case of breach of Privilege, and that the matter is being raised at the earliest opportunity. All matters of Privilege shall be dealt with by the House.

A Member may give Notice of Motion relating to a matter of Privilege.

PROCEEDINGS ON QUESTION OF ORDER.

160. Upon a Question of Order being raised, the Member called to order shall resume his seat and A Member may rise to speak upon a Question of Order suddenly arising and the Member addressing the Chair shall resume his seat. After the Question of Order has been stated to the Speaker by the Member rising to Order, the Speaker may give his decision thereon, or he may first hear further argument thereon, at his discretion.

OBJECTIONS TO THE RULINGS OF MR. SPEAKER.

161. A Ruling of Mr. Speaker may only be dissented from by Motion : Provided that Mr. Speaker shall be entitled to put the Question when Debate on any such Motion shall have exceeded thirty minutes, and that no Member or the Mover in Reply, shall, without concurrence, speak to such Motion for more than ten minutes.

Notice of such Motion shall be given and set down to be considered within three sitting-days of that on which the ruling was given, shall take precedence of all other business on the day appointed, and if not moved on that day shall lapse.

OBJECTIONS TO DECISIONS OF THE CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES.

162. If any objection is taken to a ruling or decision of the Chairman of Committees, such objection must be taken at once; and having been stated in writing, and if the Committee so decide (no debate being allowed, except a statement of the objection limited to ~~ten~~ five minutes), the Chairman shall leave the Chair, and the House resume, and the matter be laid before the Speaker; and having been disposed of, on the terms set forth for debating dissent from Mr. Speaker's ruling, the proceedings in Committee shall be resumed where they were interrupted.

CLOSURE.—RIGHT OF REPLY.

175. At any time during the proceedings of the House, or during the proceedings of a Committee of the Whole, and whether any Member is addressing the Chair or not, except where otherwise provided any Member may move, without notice or debate, "That the Question be now put"; and such Motion shall then be put without debate, but shall not be decided in the affirmative unless no division is called for or by a vote of at least thirty Members in favour thereof, and if such Motion be carried, the Speaker or Chairman of Committees, as the case may be, shall forthwith put the Question to the vote: Provided that, whenever it is decided that any Question shall be put, the mover of the matter pending shall be permitted to speak in reply (where any reply is allowed) for thirty minutes, except as provided in ~~Rule~~ Standing Orders Nos. 49, 62A, 113A, 161, 244 and 395, before the Question be put.

CHAPTER XX.—AMENDMENTS.

* * * * *

AMENDMENTS TO BE IN WRITING.

190. An Amendment to any Motion before the House must if required ~~by the Chair~~, be in writing.

QUESTION AS AMENDED ~~PUT~~ PROPOSED.

199. When amendments have been agreed to, the main Question, as amended, shall be ~~put~~ proposed.

CHAPTER XXI.—DIVISIONS.

* * * * *

~~NO MEMBER TO VOTE IF PERSONALLY INTERESTED.~~

NO MEMBER TO VOTE IF HE HAS PECUNIARY INTEREST.

204. No Member shall be entitled to vote in any Division upon a Question in which he has a direct pecuniary interest, and the vote of any Member so interested shall be disallowed.

QUESTION PUT AND DIVISION TAKEN.—TELLERS.

208. (a) When the doors have been locked, the Speaker shall put the Question to the House, and the Members present shall take their seats, the "Ayes" to the right, and the "Noes" to the left of the Chair respectively, and the Speaker shall appoint Tellers—two for each ~~party~~ side; and shall declare which has the majority, from lists of the Members voting on each side to be handed to him by the Tellers; and, in the event of the Tellers not agreeing, the Speaker shall appoint other Tellers and so on from time to time until the Tellers shall have agreed. No Member appointed to act as a Teller shall decline to so act unless excused by the Speaker.

MEMBERS PRESENT MUST VOTE.

(b) Every Member present in the House when the Question is then put, will be required to remain and vote.

~~IF ONLY ONE MEMBER:~~ NOT MORE THAN FIVE MEMBERS.

(c) In case there should be ~~only one Member~~ not more than five Members on a side on a Division, the Speaker, without completing the Division, shall forthwith declare the resolution arrived at and the number of the minority, and their names shall be taken down and printed in the proceedings.

MEMBERS COUNTED, AND NAMES RECORDED.

(d) Members having taken seats, as far as possible, every Member shall then be counted, and his name recorded by the Tellers for either side, who shall sign the list, and present the same to the Speaker, who will declare the result to the House.

DIVISIONS FRIVOLOUSLY CLAIMED.

213. (a) Mr. Speaker may, after the lapse of two minutes as indicated by the Minute-glass, if in his opinion the Division is frivolously or vexatiously claimed, take the vote of the House by directing the Members who support or challenge his decision to take their seats to the right and left of the Chair respectively, and he shall thereupon, as he thinks fit, either declare the determination of the House or name Tellers for a Division.

(b) In case there is no Division the Speaker shall declare the number of the minority who had challenged this decision, and their names shall, thereupon, be taken down and printed in the proceedings.

CHAPTER XXII.—ADDRESSES TO HIS MAJESTY THE SOVEREIGN AND TO THE GOVERNOR.

ADDRESSES TO HIS MAJESTY THE SOVEREIGN PRESENTED TO THE GOVERNOR BY SPEAKER.

214. Addresses to His Majesty The Sovereign shall be presented to the Governor by the Speaker, who shall request His Excellency to cause the same to be forwarded for presentation.

CHAPTER XXV.—PUBLIC BILLS.

* * * * *

Initiation.

HOW INITIATED.

244. A Public Bill (unless sent from the Council) shall be initiated by a motion for leave to bring in the Bill, except Taxation, Temporary Supply, Loan, or Appropriation Bills, which shall be initiated by resolution reported from Committee of Ways and Means, and agreed to by the House, upon which a Motion, without Notice, specifying the intended title of the Bill shall be founded.

A Member, and the Mover in Reply, shall be entitled to speak for ten minutes to any such motion for leave to bring in a Bill, however initiated.

The Mover shall within that time briefly outline the objects of the Bill and an explanatory note shall be prefixed to the Bill when presented in pursuance of leave granted.

PROCEEDINGS ON BLANKS.

266. In going through a Bill no Question shall be put for the filling up of words already printed in italics, and commonly called "blanks," unless exception be taken thereto, and if no alterations have been made in the words as printed in italics, the Bill is to be reported without amendment, unless other amendments have been made therein.

PREAMBLE AGREED TO.

270. After every Clause and Schedule has been agreed to, and any new clauses added which are within the title of the Bill, or pursuant to any instructions, the Preamble shall be considered, and, if necessary, amended, and a Question put proposed "That the Preamble as read (or amended) be the Preamble of the Bill".

First Report to Adoption of Final Report.

BILL REPORTED TO THE HOUSE.

273. When the Bill shall have been thus considered or amended, clause by clause, the Question shall be put, without debate, "~~That the Chairman do now leave the Chair and report the Bill with, or without, amendment to the House~~"; and the Chairman shall report the Bill, with or without amendment, accordingly to the House, and the Report shall be received without Question put.

Assent.

PREPARATION AND CERTIFICATES REQUIRED PRIOR TO PRESENTATION FOR ASSENT.

306. (1) Every Bill originated in this House—

(a) which shall finally pass both Houses, or

(b) which, in accordance with the provisions of section 5A or section 5B of the Constitution Act, 1902, is presented for the signification of ~~His Majesty's~~ The Sovereign's pleasure thereon, shall be fair printed on vellum or parchment and be by the Speaker presented to the Governor.

Before being so presented a Bill shall be certified in accordance with this Standing Order.

(2) Where a Bill has finally passed both Houses, the Chairman of Committees or the Acting Chairman of Committees shall certify in writing on the Bill that he has examined such fair print and found it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses, and at the top of the first page of such fair print the Clerk of the Assembly shall certify that it has finally passed both Houses.

(3) Where a Bill is to be presented in accordance with section 5A of the Constitution Act, 1902, the Chairman of Committees or the Acting Chairman of Committees shall certify in writing on the Bill that he has examined such fair print and found it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as directed by the Legislative Assembly, in accordance with section 5A of the Constitution Act, 1902, to be presented for the signification of ~~His Majesty's~~ The Sovereign's pleasure thereon, and the Clerk of the Assembly shall certify at the top of the first page of such fair print that the Bill has passed the Legislative Assembly, and that the Assembly has directed, in accordance with the provisions of section 5A of the Constitution Act, 1902, that the Bill be presented to the Governor for the signification of ~~His Majesty's~~ The Sovereign's pleasure thereon.

(4) Where a Bill is to be presented in accordance with section 5B of the Constitution Act, 1902, the Chairman of Committees or the Acting Chairman of Committees shall certify in writing on the Bill that he has examined such fair print and found it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as approved at a referendum by a majority of the electors voting, and the Clerk of the Assembly shall certify at the top of the first page of such fair print that the Bill has passed the Legislative Assembly, and, having been approved at a referendum by a majority of the electors voting, is now presented to the Governor, in accordance with the provisions of section 5B of the Constitution Act, 1902, for the signification of ~~His Majesty's~~ The Sovereign's pleasure thereon.

CHAPTER XXVI.—COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE HOUSE.

* * * * *

ABSENCE OF QUORUM.

322. If notice be taken of the absence of a Quorum, ~~the Serjeant-at-Arms,~~ by direction of the Chairman shall ring the Division Bell, the Division Bell shall be rung, and one of the Clerks Assistant shall simultaneously turn the Minute-glass, and if within two minutes as indicated by the Minute-glass, a Quorum be not formed, or if it appears upon a Division in Committee, that a Quorum of Members be not present, the Chairman shall leave the Chair of the Committee without a Question being put, and the Speaker shall resume the Chair.

REPORT.—REPORT OF PROGRESS.

326. When all matters referred to a Committee have been considered, the Chairman shall be directed to report the same to the House. ~~and when all such matters have not been considered, the Chairman shall report progress, and ask leave to sit again.~~

REPORT BROUGHT UP.

~~327.~~ 328. A Report from a Committee of the Whole House shall be brought up without any Question being put.

MOTION TO REPORT PROGRESS.

~~328.~~ 327. A Motion may be made during the proceedings of a Committee "That the Chairman leave the Chair, report progress, and ask leave to sit again," no debate being allowed on such Motion.

CHAPTER XXVIII.—SELECT COMMITTEES.

* * * * *

~~SECRET COMMITTEE.~~

COMMITTEE SITTING IN CAMERA.

366. No Strangers, or Members, not being of the Select Committee, shall be admitted at any time to a ~~Secret Committee~~ Committee sitting in camera.

CHAPTER XXXI.—SUSPENSION OF STANDING ORDERS.

SUSPENSION OF STANDING ORDERS—PROCEDURE IN URGENT CASES.

395. Any Standing Order or Orders of the House may be suspended on Motion duly made and seconded in accordance with notice given, and in cases of urgent necessity such Standing Order or Orders may be suspended on Motion duly made and seconded without notice. Provided that the Speaker shall be entitled to put the Question when debate on any such Motion shall have exceeded one hour, and that no Member or the Mover in Reply shall, without concurrence, speak to such Motion for more than ten minutes.

Any substantive Motion sought to be discussed by way of Urgency must conform to the rules and practice of the House in respect to Motions and Notices of Motions.

The question of urgency shall be decided by the House upon Motion, without notice or debate, except a statement by the Mover and a statement by a Minister, or the Leader of the Opposition when the Motion is moved by a Minister, each limited to ten minutes.
