This document provides a summary of significant procedures and precedents in the Legislative Assembly. It is produced at the end of each sitting period. Where applicable the relevant standing orders are noted.

BUSINESS

10.1 Standing Orders suspended to permit a member to resume speech

During debate on a bill, the Acting Speaker directed a member to discontinue their speech for persisting in irrelevance. The Leader of the House then suspended standing and sessional orders to enable the member to resume and conclude their speech.

Votes and Proceedings: 7 March 2012, pp. 586-7

Hansard: 7 March 2012, galley p. 29

Standing Order 59

Standing Order 365

(NB: Standing and sessional orders were required to be suspended to enable the member to resume their speech as another member had already commenced their speech. If no member had started speaking after the ruling had been made a motion could have been moved in accordance with Standing Order 60 "That the Member for ... be further heard". This would have had the same effect as the suspension in allowing a member to resume their speech).

10.2 Community Recognition Notices

Motion agreed to for certain motions to be formally agreed to as Community Recognition Notices.

Votes and Proceedings: 8 March 2012, pp. 595-609 & 15 March 2012, pp. 629-41

Hansard: 8 March 2012, pp. 9-19 & 15 March 2012, pp. 1-9

Standing Order 105 (as amended by sessional order)

Standing Order 107 (as amended by sessional order)

(NB: In accordance with the sessional orders, the question that the motions be agreed to was put in globo and the question is not able to be divided).

10.3 Leave of the House obtained to permit conclusion of debate

The leave of the House was obtained to permit the conclusion of the debate on a general business motion prior to the commencement of the take note debate on committee reports.

Votes and Proceedings: 8 March 2012, p. 611 & 15 March 2012, p. 644

Hansard: 8 March 2012, galley p. 36 & 15 March 2012, p. 36

Standing Order 96

Standing Order 97 (as amended by sessional order)

(NB: Leave of the House was required as the routine of business (SO 97 as amended by sessional order) provides for the debate on General Business motions to be interrupted at 1.00 pm on Thursdays for the Take Note debate on committee reports).

10.4 Discussion of petition signed by 10,000 or more persons

Discussion proceeded on the subject matter of the petition signed by 10,000 or more persons that had been received by the House from certain citizens "requesting that all revenue raised from traffic enforcement cameras be spent on road safety initiatives." In accordance with the sessional order, no question was put at the conclusion of the discussion.

Votes and Proceedings: 8 March 2012, p. 613

Hansard: 8 March 2012, galley pp. 64-7

Standing Order 125A (adopted as a sessional order)

Discussion proceeded on the subject matter of the petition signed by 10,000 or more persons that had been received by the House from certain citizens "requesting a moratorium on coal seam gas mining until a Royal Commission into its impacts is conducted and requesting a ban on hydraulic fracturing extraction." In accordance with the sessional order, no question was put at the conclusion of the discussion.

Votes and Proceedings: 15 March 2012, p. 646

Hansard: 15 March 2012, galley pp. 65-9

Standing Order 125A (adopted as a sessional order)

CHAMBER

10.5 Disorder in the public gallery

DIVISIONS

10.7 Five Members or Fewer

Without completing the division, the Assistant Speaker declared the question "That this bill be now agreed to in principle" (Centennial Park and Moore Park Trust Amendment Bill) passed as there were only four members in the minority who had challenged his decision.

Votes and Proceedings: 13 March 2012, p. 619

Hansard: 13 March 2012, galley p. 51

Standing Order 181

JOINT SITTING

10.8 Vacancy in the Australian Senate

The Speaker reported a message from the Governor transmitting a copy of a despatch dated 5 March 2012, received from the President of the Senate, notifying of a vacancy in the representation of the State of New South Wales in the Senate of the Commonwealth of Australia.

After the Speaker reported the message, a motion moved by the Attorney General was agreed to: That the House meet together with the Legislative Council for the purpose of sitting and voting together to choose a person to hold the place in the Senate rendered vacant by the resignation of senator the Honourable Mark Arbib and for a message to be sent to the Legislative Council informing it of the resolution of the House and requesting the Council to fix a time and place for the joint sitting.

Votes and Proceedings: 6 March 2012, pp. 576-7

Hansard: 6 March 2012, galley p. 15

Standing Order 248

Standing Order 336

The Speaker reported a message from the Legislative Council agreeing to the Assembly's request for a joint sitting to elect a person to the vacant seat in the Australian Senate and advising that the Joint Sitting would be held that day at 5.15 pm.

At the time for the Joint Sitting the House proceeded to the Legislative Council Chamber and upon return the Speaker reported that the Honourable Robert John Carr had been elected to fill the vacancy and the Speaker tabled the minutes of the proceedings of the Joint Sitting.

Votes and Proceedings: 6 March 2012, pp. 578-9; & pp. 582-3

Hansard: 6 March 2012, galley pp. 27-8; & p. 48

Standing Order 339

(NB: Section 15 of the Australian Constitution provides that if the place of a senator becomes vacant before the expiration of their term of service, the Houses of Parliament of the State for which they were chosen, sitting and voting together shall choose a person to hold the place until the expiration of the term. Provision is made for the Governor to appoint a person to hold the casual vacancy when the House is "not in session", which effectively means the Governor can only make an appointment to the Senate during periods when the Parliament is prorogued.)
