NOTICE OF MOTION

Mark Buttigieg says -

Mr PRESIDENT:

I give notice that on the next sitting day I will move:

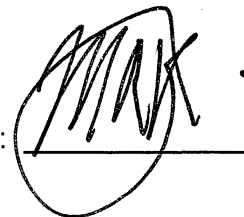

1. That this House notes that:
 - a. On 29 April 2024, Unions NSW and SafeWork NSW held their annual International Day of Mourning service at Reflection Park in Darling Harbour,
 - b. The International Day of Mourning is observed worldwide in April each year as a day for families, friends, unions, and government to come together to remember those whose lives have been lost tragically at work or because of their work,
 - c. Members of families who have lost loved ones were very well represented at the memorial and spoke of their loss and the need for action to prevent similar tragedies occurring again,
 - d. Accordingly, the International Day of Mourning is also a time of reflection for industry and government to consider how we can do better to create safer workplaces,
 - e. Any death in the workplace is a death too many, and the NSW Government is committed to bettering work health and safety in New South Wales,

- f. Marking the International Day of Mourning, the Minister for Work Health and Safety and the Minister for Industrial Relations, the Hon. Sophie Cotsis MP, reaffirmed the NSW Government's commitment to introducing Industrial Manslaughter laws to Parliament this year. These laws will ensure employers can receive higher penalties for workplace deaths, and
- g. It is important that we continue to remember workplace deaths and injuries and even more important that we prevent them happening in the future.

2. That this House commends:

- a. Unions NSW and SafeWork NSW for organising the memorial, and
- b. the Minister for Work Health and Safety and the Minister for Industrial Relations, the Hon. Sophie Cotsis MP, for acting to introduce Industrial Manslaughter laws in New South Wales.
